Carr named to lead millage campaign

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

The campaign for Romulus' June 14 millage election has yet to officially begin, however, Joel Carr, principal of Romulus High School, has been named the head of the administrative team which will campaign in behalf of a five-mill tax increase along with a 10-mill renewal question.

According to Supt. James Garfield, Carr will be naming a citizens' advisory committee in the near future to coordinate the campaign.

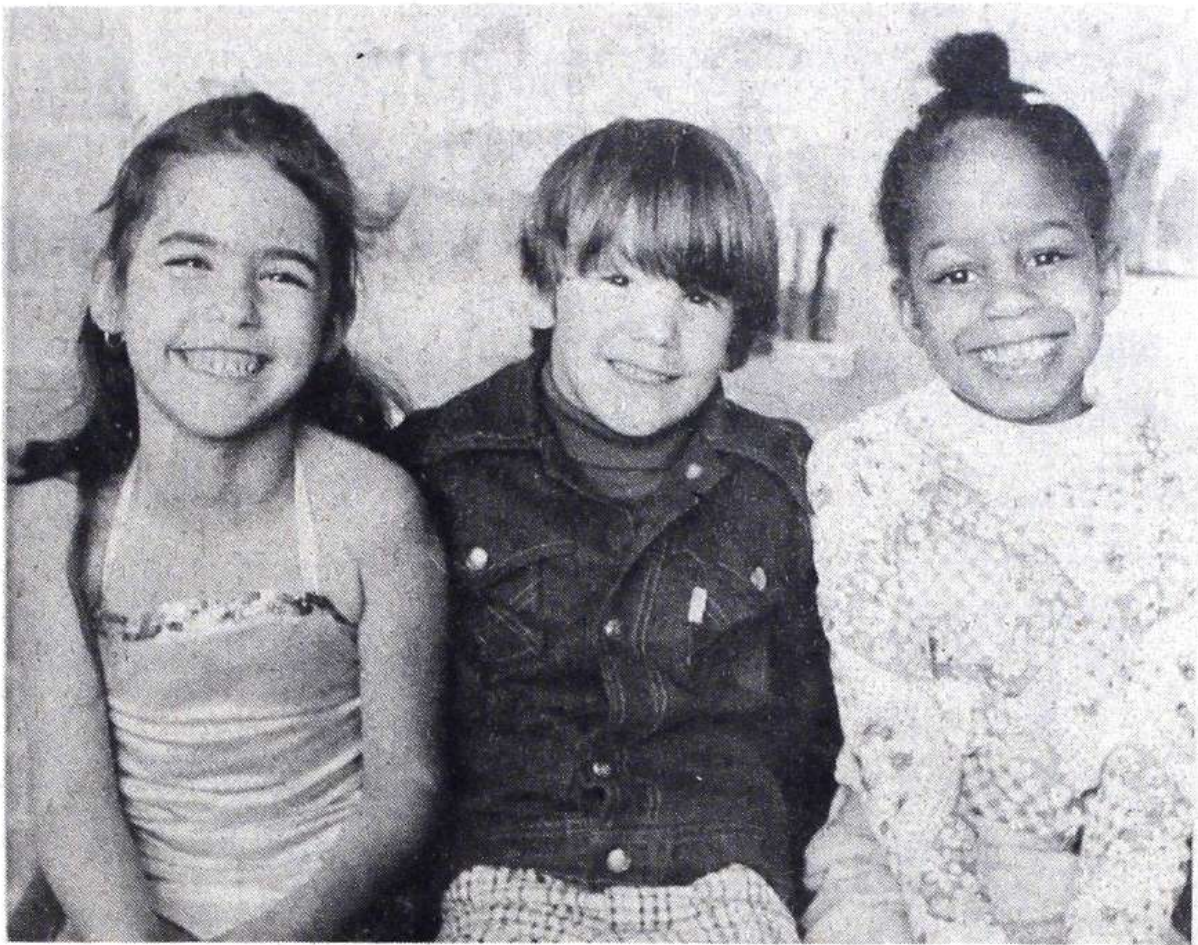

A board election for seats held by Trustees Jack Bath and Hulen Yates also is scheduled for that date, however, administrative personnel will not be campaigning in behalf of board candidates.

At stake in the "money race" is nearly 40 percent of the district's 27.65-mill operating levy. The additional funds are being sought to neutralize an anticipated $1 million budget deficit which will accumulate even if the 10-mill operating levy is renewed.

Garfield earlier had recommended the five-mill package, designed to raise $915,000 for operations next year.

Voters will decide whether they are willing to authorize the expenditure of some $2.75 million for school operations during the terms of the two millage proposals.

Independence from county sought

Stewart blasts drain assessments as 'outrageous'

'Now the assessment program is here ripping us off for work never done.'

Romulus' top administrator has taken a strong stand against special assessments to pay for maintenance of county drains in his community.

Mayor James C. Stewart called "outrageous" a practice by the Wayne County Drain Commissioner's office of assessing taxpayers for work not performed on county drains.

"In the past 10 years, we've only seen drain crews in Romulus a couple of times," Stewart said. "Now the assessment program is here ripping us off for work never done."

It was learned during a public hearing before the Michigan House Drainage Committee that fully 78 percent of special assessments charged residents in drainage districts for "drain maintenance" goes for "administrative costs" while the remaining 22 percent of the levy covers the cost of actual work done.

"We don't see the results of this work in the Downriver area," Stewart said. "The water's still as high as it's ever been in Romulus, despite the special assessments."

Several area communities, including Canton, Huron, and Van Buren townships, have actively opposed the drain tax levy. Their persistence paid off when township officials persuaded the House drainage committee to hold a hearing.

During the hearing, held in the Canton Township Hall, at least one Romulus resident complained about the rising tax levies on her farm and cited assessments for drain maintenance not done.

Stewart's answer to the county drain assessment is to pursue a course for Romulus independent of county drain operations.

"We're still working on the super drain," the mayor said. "Once that's completed, Romulus will be in charge of its own work, and citizens won't have to suffer under the tax plan."

However, Romulus needs the cooperation of the drain commissioner's office to get its own drain program under way.

County employees currently are working on legal drafts of agreements between Romulus, the Wayne County Road Commission and Huron Township to finance a study that is needed before work can begin on drain construction.

Romulus resident accused of murder

A Romulus resident is in jail pending examination on charges that he murdered a Wayne man during a robbery of a Romulus service station April 5.

Charles Boyer Jr., 25, has been accused of the bludgeoning slaying of Clarence R. St. Charles, 23.

Boyer was arrested the day after St. Charles was found in a locked Speedway service station at Wayne and Van Born roads, in Romulus.

His body was discovered by Joseph Ramo, of Ypsilanti, another employee of the outlet.

According to the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, St. Charles was beaten to death with a heavy wrench. Some $2,000 in weekend receipts were stolen.

Police said Boyer, who apparently had been scheduled to work with St. Charles, has been an employee with the Speedway company for three years.

The suspect was arraigned on the murder charge on April 6 in 34th District Court.

Residents show community pride

The Romulus Bicentennial Commission reports that the citizens of Romulus do take pride in their community.

The Commission has sold 1,500 Romulus Bicentennial patches and approximately 1,100 license plate holders and it can be noted throughout the community that these proud citizens are indeed displaying the patches and plate holders.

A Commission spokesman commended all the citizens who are supporting the Bicentennial celebration by their purchases and added that it was "especially heartening to see Romulus pride at work."

The Commission still has a limited number of license plate holders which can be purchased for $1 at Manufacturers' Bank in Romulus, the Secretary of State's Office, or at the treasurer's office in City Hall.

Mayor keeps promise 'Hold-the-line' budget goes to city council

Of The Roman Staff

Romulus Mayor James C. Stewart has presented the city council with his "hold-the-line" budget for fiscal 1976-77.

Stewart said he has established a budget that will finance a $7 million municipal program with the same 12.5-mill levy now in effect. Included in the 12.5 mills are 9.5 mills for general operations. The remaining three mills are earmarked for water and sewer projects.

"We can operate like we did last year," Stewart told The Romulus Roman. "There is enough revenue in the budget to maintain the same services, but not any extras."

Stewart termed his budget "balanced" just before presenting it to the council for approval.

Under the city charter, the council has the final say on city spending.

Last year the council adopted a budget that included a provision whereby four mills were transferred to the general operating levy from the city's water and sewer debt retirement levy. The council later learned the city had sufficient surplus revenue through its general levy to cover payments on the water and sewer debt without the millage transfer. The millage shift, which was not rescinded, resulted in a better than 80-percent increase in local revenue for city services.

The mayor said he wasn't sure whether he would continue the same practice. During his successful election campaign, St. Stewart was critical of former Mayor's "hold-the-line" budget.

Although criticized by the present mayor, the plan has been declared legal, since the city is empowered to levy up to 10 mills without voter approval.

The reduction of the water and sewer levy by four mills and the subsequent increase of the general operating levy by the same amount brought the city's total operating millage to 9.5 mills during 1975-76.

In an earlier interview, Stewart had indicated his budget would not include any massive new programs, but would be a plan to check spending for the most part.

Easter to be observed

The theme of this year's ecumenical Good Friday service is "From Sufferings to Victory."

This year's service, sponsored by five area churches, will be held at the Berean Baptist Church, 6889 Belleville Road, Belleville between 1 and 3 p.m. Friday.

The services will be divided into four half-hour segments with the public invited to attend any one, or all of the services.

The five churches involved in this year's service include the Bethany Baptist Church, the Emmanuel Baptist Church, the Trinity Baptist Church, the Zion Missionary Church and the Berean Baptist Church.

During the first half-hour segment Pastor Michael Moser will be showing from the scriptures the sufferings of Christ. The second period will have Pastor Brian Fujii showing how the disciples were affected by the Savior's sufferings.

The third period will have Pastor John Losen discussing why there are human sufferings.

The fourth period will have Pastor H. Franklin Miller discussing the practical results of death, burial and the resurrection of Christ.

City 'juggles' figures to maintain services

By JIM CARAVALLAH
Of The Enterprise-Roman Staff

Belleville's city fathers are wrestling with a myriad of financial problems in preparation for the city's 1976-77 budget.

According to Mayor Justin Emerson, work has begun to juggle the city's limited resources with an eye toward continuing to offer an optimum number of services at a minimal cost.

"We'd like to keep the budget at the present 16-mill operating levy this year," Emerson said.

"However, I don't want to make any promises that we will just as yet."

At the top of the city's priorities for the budget this year is settling a contract with Teamsters Local 214, which represents the city's police department; continuing the city's block grant community improvement program, and assessing citizens' opinions on joining the People's Community Hospital Authority (PCHA).

All three developments will have an effect on the budget.

According to Emerson, the Teamsters represent half of the city's work force, and with personnel costs covering a majority of the budget costs, the results of the pending negotiations will have a bearing on what the citizens will be asked to pay to cover services.

"We've been trying to set up meetings with the police union to get this thing underway, but have met some difficulty," Emerson said.

"We'd like to get that under way soon."

The block grant program, designed to continue an urban renewal project in the city's downtown area will have to be evaluated to determine how much "new" improvement the community can afford.

"We're going to be faced with some increased costs in the urban renewal project," Emerson said.

"And depending on what those costs are will determine just how much latitude we have with the block grant."

Projected uses for the federal funds, which could reach $60,000 this year, include not only finalizing some aspects of the urban renewal project, but also continuing the purchase of property adjacent to the Belleville City Hall for parking, and continuing work on an outside water meter-reading program started next year.

Though Community Development Act funds, which go into the block grant, are not part of the general operating budget, the more those funds can be used to finance programs under community development, the less pressure there will be on the council to spend general fund monies, Emerson said.

The third problem faced by the city — the PCHA question — could have some bearing on the budget deliberations, because the council will have to determine how it will meet a .4 mill tax levy required to enter the PCHA.

"It would cost the city $6,400 to join the hospital authority," Emerson said. "And the city just doesn't have that kind of money to spend right now."

"We're looking at a very tight budget projection right now, so every added cent counts."

"But the PCHA question is too important to the citizens in this community to be ignored at this time."

The present city operating millage is 16 mills, or $16 for every $1,000 in assessed valuation.

By comparison, at this time last year when the council was exploring budget proposals, projected tax needs reached 21-mills before the council decided to tighten its belt enough to keep costs at the 16-mill level.

200th quilt 'rescues' school camping trip

Area residents are urged to participate in the Elwell Elementary School "Bicentennial Quilt" drawing, scheduled for April 30.

According to Elwell School Principal William Chizmar, the drawing will feature a quilt, made by Lola Manning, a parent volunteer who is helping sixth grade students finance a camping experience during the May 10-14 period.

More than 1,000 raffle tickets will be sold at a cost of 50 cents each by the sixth graders who will be enjoying what Chizmar terms an "outdoor learning experience" near Wolverine, Mich., some 240 miles north of Belleville.

"The camping experience merges with similar programs in the district, designed to offer students alternative learning activities," Chizmar said. "But because it is located in a far northern area, some extra funds are needed to help finance the trip."

Chizmar said he is hoping that the quilt raffle will raise some $500 to finance bus transportation to the camp.

Two buses will be needed to make the trek and will have to stand by during the 5-day camping program for the students.

While students have been working to raise funds for the trip, the Bicentennial quilt came as an unexpected surprise.

"Mrs. Manning made the quilt strictly on a volunteer basis and donated it to the students," Chizmar said. "All the students and faculty members are appreciative of her work."

The quilt, which includes a number of Bicentennial theme designs made with a quilting pencil, will be raffled in conjunction with the annual Elwell School carnival scheduled from 5 to 9 p.m. April 30 at the school.

The carnival will be operated by the Elwell Elementary School Parent-Teacher Organization to raise funds for playground equipment.

Featured as part of the carnival are games for all ages of youngsters and adults and food at nominal prices.

"The PTO has been active on the carnival and in renovating outmoded equipment," Chizmar said. "This carnival will help raise funds to complete some of the work on the playground equipment."

Prior to the carnival, the sixth graders will be circulating in the community door-to-door to sell tickets for the quilt drawing.

Out-county may get court branch: Harris

The Wayne County commissioner serving Romulus predicts that an out-county Circuit Court function will be a reality this year.

Commissioner Edgar L. Harris, who has begun a series of "informational meetings" in Romulus, told a gathering at a recent session that the county will be asking for a grant from the Michigan Office of Criminal Justice Programs to finance a test out-county circuit court branch which could handle all but trial work outside of Detroit.

"Romulus, Taylor, Westland and the Downriver corridor are among the possible locations discussed for the branch," Harris said. "Implementation of this program would be a real asset to my district."

The out-county Circuit Court concept has been discussed for several years at the Board of Commissioners' level, but has been stalled by state laws which require courts for a county to remain in that county's seat.

The Wayne County seat is the City of Detroit.

Some speculation has arisen about such a court when the full board discussed the possibility of building a Wayne County Jail annex in the out-county area, most likely in Westland just across Van Born Road from Romulus.

Officials in Westland and surrounding communities gave a tentative endorsement to the jail plan for that community if an out-county services bureau, including a Circuit Court branch, were built in conjunction with it.

The grant discussed by Harris would come from the Federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) which provides seed money to communities and governmental bodies to explore means for implementing more efficient criminal justice programs.

Under the proposal discussed by Harris, the commissioner from the 26th Wayne County District, which includes Romulus and Taylor, the out-county branch would include space for pre-trial conferences for prosecutors and defense attorneys.

Such matters now are conducted in downtown Detroit and require police officers and witnesses from the out-county area to travel to there.

In addition, Harris envisions a process where pleas on cases would be taken in the out-county area, either by a judge dispatched from the City-County Building in Detroit or a specially-designated district judge.

However, under the plan, full trials still would be located in Detroit, to comply with state law.

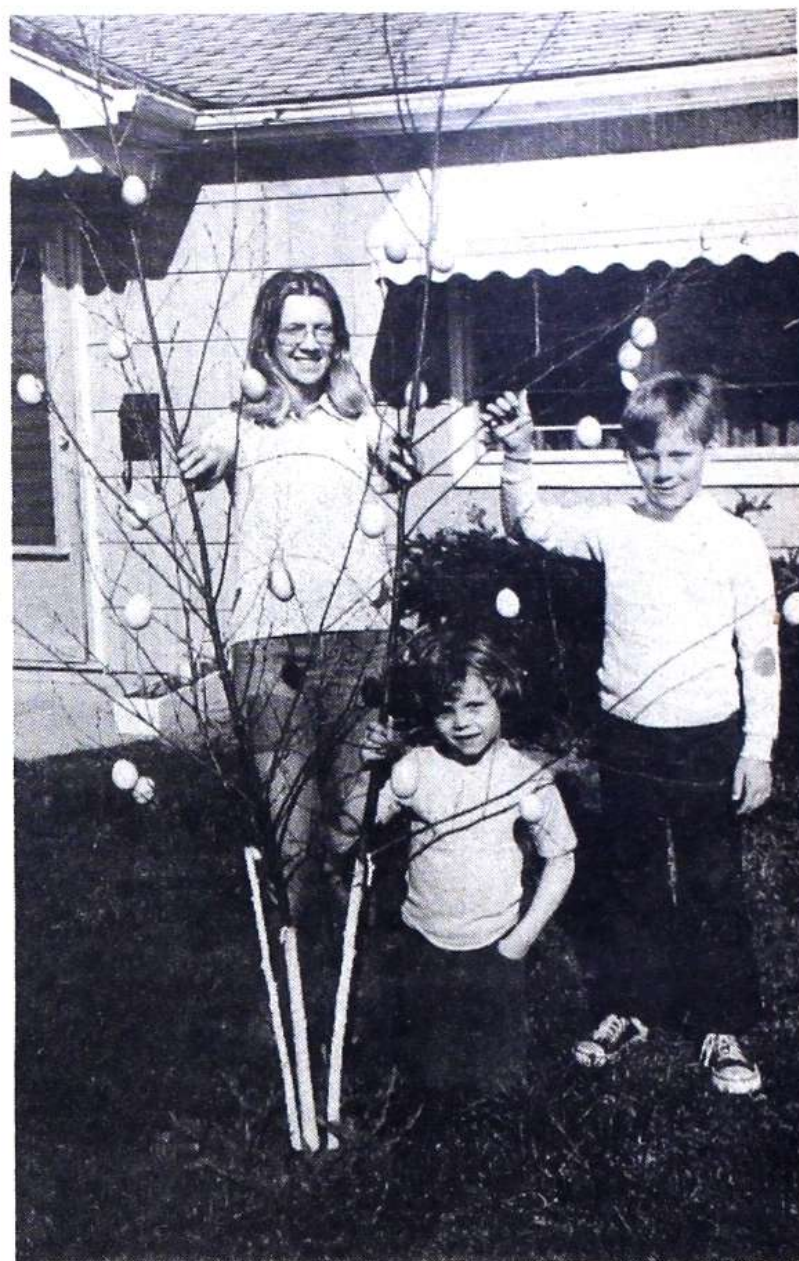

Van Buren offers chipping service

Van Buren Township will be offering a tree chipping service to residents free of direct charge from May 3-14.

Residents, desiring to have township crews bring out the township chipper and remove cut brush from their homes, can make arrangements by calling the Township Hall at 699-2001 from April 19-30.

According to George Kunkel, department of public works superintendent for the township, residents have the option of either having the chips removed, or left on their property for gardening purposes.

Kunkel, however, cautions that township crews cannot work with stumps, trunks or limbs larger than 2½-inches in diameter with the chipper.

The tree in front of the home of Mrs. Andrea Bolinsky of Belleville isn't sprouting Easter eggs. Mrs. Bolinsky, with the help of her children, David 6, and Michael, 8, (right) decorated the natural wonder with some man-made delights to celebrate the coming Easter holiday in Belleville. ANP Chief Photographer Lothar E. Konietzko was called to snap a shot of the pretty decoration by a neighbor who wanted to give Mrs. Bolinsky some credit for her efforts.

Wood work, graphic arts gain awards

Three students from the Romulus South Junior High School Graphic Arts program have received state honors for their designs during the recent Michigan Industrial Education Society state fair held in Port Huron.

Earning top honors in the competition was Christie Sigman, an eighth-grade student at the school, who placed first in regional competition at Grosse Ile with her T-shirt design and won a first-place honor at the state competition.

Patricia Vaughn took a second-place award for her T-shirt design in Port Huron after placing first in regional competition.

Brian Boc placed fourth in the state after being second in the region with his T-shirt design.

All three eighth-grade students took their honors for their silk-screen T-shirt designs made in the junior high graphics arts class.

Several other students earned high honors for their efforts at the regional competition in Grosse Ile.

Stout, Mark Snyckerski, Gary Earnes and Vincent Bean.

Students entered in both the regional and state competition were judged on projects they designed and constructed during the past school year at Romulus South.

They worked under the direction of John Juriga, the woodshop teacher, and Don Foley, the graphics arts teacher.

Unit nets new $$

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners has agreed to offer a supplementary $25,000 for the budget of the Wayne County Consumer Protection Agency.

The funds, approved by the board, will be used to hire an attorney and a secretary to handle more consumer complaints from the county.

The prosecutor's office, which supervises the consumer protection agency operations, requested the additional funding as a means to compensate for a gutting of the agency's staff by the full board Dec. 1.

At that time, the board approved a budget which halved the complement of personnel operating under the protection agency, making it less effective than in the past.

Seniors can join Niagara Falls trip

The Romulus Recreation Department is sponsoring a trip to Niagara Falls for the senior citizens of the community.

The June 10-11 overnight trip will cost $44 per person, with a $15 deposit required by April 30.

The deposit will reserve a ticket for the train trip across Canada to the resort area.

The trip is open to all citizens 55 years of age or older.

The itinerary for the journey includes a rail trip between Windsor and Burlington, Ont., with accommodations at Michael's Inn, Niagara Falls after a bus trip to the tourist attraction.

Included in the price of a ticket is a breakfast on the second day of the trip and dinner that night at the Canadian side of the falls.

Information on the trip can be obtained by contacting the Romulus Recreation Department at 941-0666.

Little league sets membership meet

The Romulus North Little League will be holding a general membership meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Romulus Public Library.

The library is located near Wayne and Goddard roads just next door to the Romulus City Hall.

All parents and interested persons in the North Little League Area are invited to attend the meeting.

The North Little League serves that portion of Romulus just north of the I-94 freeway.

Panax posts earnings for '75 business year

The 1975 sales and earnings figures of Panax Corp., publisher of The Associated Newspapers, disclosed that net earnings rose to $220,158, or 19 cents a share compared to a loss of ($277,041) or 24 cents a share in 1974. Operating revenues for 1975 were $25,481,657 contrasted to $27,242,902 in 1974.

Commenting on the 1975 operating results, John P. McGoff, Panax president stated, "we are pleased with the significantly improved performance of the operating divisions of the company through 1975.

The turn-around to profitability from a loss in 1974 came about on revenues of $25,481,657, which were down six percent from 1974 revenue figures.

"Our continued financial improvement is a result of our reorganization and consolidation during latter 1974 and 1975, and the increased operating efficiency this brought to the entire corporation. The full effects of the reorganization were realized during the last half of 1975.

"The upturn in the economy in 1976 gives us reason to continue to be optimistic for the remainder of the year," McGoff said. "We expect continued earnings improvement through 1976."

Romulus workers prepare for Easter Funtastic' annual

The Romulus Community Workers will hold their annual Easter Funtastic between 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Romulus High School.

Featuring skits, clowns, cartoon and Sesame Street characters, games and Easter treats, the Funtastic is designed to provide local children with a little more to celebrate at Eastertime.

Put on by the Romulus Community Workers under the direction of Geneva Clark and the Family and Neighborhood Services, this year's event is the sixth annual celebration in Romulus.

The Funtastic is sponsored under the Community Workers motto: "Helping Others While Helping Ourselves."

Helping out in the program are the Romulus Senior Citizens and adult and teen volunteers who have stepped forward to fill in jobs needed to put on the Funtastic.

In addition to the volunteer workers, the community workers received aid from the American Progressive Association, Romulus Jaycee Auxiliary, Romulus City Recreation Department, Romulus Board of Education, Romulus Jaycees and Romulus Civic League. All area residents are invited to attend this year's event.

Legislation would exempt 6 professions from control

At a time when it seems as though state regulation of activities never is reduced, a local legislator has introduced a proposal which would exempt six already licensed professions from state jurisdiction.

State Sen. William Faust (D-13th District) has introduced legislation at the State Senate which would eliminate what he believes is unnecessary licensing of professions that have nothing to do with the public's health, or welfare.

Faust's proposal would put an end to licensing myomassologists — persons who perform massages — community planners, sanitarians, foresters, landscape architects and horologists — watchmakers.

According to the senator: "Most of these professions are licensed for no apparent reason other than to give the licenses the prestige of having a state license hanging on their office walls.

'Most of these professions are licensed for no apparent reason...'

While I have high regard for persons in each of these professions, there is absolutely no reason for them to be policed by the state.

"Professions licensed out of genuine concern for the public health and welfare often are not properly policed because the Department of Licensing and Regulation is bogged down with so many meaningless licenses."

Faust added that another of his concerns in the action is to reduce costs at the state level in an effort to overcome what he calls the "extreme fiscal difficulty of the state."

Regarding myomassologists, Faust said: "Local ordinances more than adequately control this profession and give communities the ability to control these parlors through their own law enforcement.

"This legislation would provide for reductions that would save hundreds of thousands of dollars without placing any strain whatsoever on the quality of state-provided services."

For outcounty communities

County applies for block grant funds

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners, sitting as the Ways and Means Committee, has approved application for $1.9 million in federal Community Development Block Grant Funds on behalf of 24 outcounty communities.

Meeting April 8, the committee authorized submission of the application to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development which last year provided the county $637,000 under the program that then included 18 members in the community coalition.

Twice the dollar amount is expected this year because seven new communities have been added to the group, according to the County Office of Program Development and Coordination.

'Every community that benefited last year will receive at least the same amount of funding,' said Program Director James P. Curran. 'Actually we're fighting to double those dollars, and we think that chances are in our favor.'

In this program, eligible applicant counties with more than 200,000 population organize smaller member communities — those under 50,000 population — and file an application on behalf of the entire group.

Most of the money received last year was applied to recreation projects like parks and neighborhood playgrounds, senior citizens services, and improvements on storm drainage and water mains, Curran said.

The communities participating in the Block Grant Program are Allen Park, Southgate, Ecorse, Plymouth Township, Grosse Pointe Park, Melvindale, Van Buren Township, Plymouth, Canton Township, Northville Township and Grosse Ile Township.

Also involved are Sumpter Township, Brownstown Township, Grosse Pointe, Flat Rock, Gibraltar, Northville, Garden City, Wayndotte, Trenton, Belleville, Riverview, Woodhaven and Huron Township.

The committee also approved a renegotiated schedule of more than $40.2 million payment from the City of Detroit for indebtedness to the county under terms of a 1959 lease-purchase agreement for the county water supply water system.

The new payment schedule proposes a $1.2 million installment in July 1976, and the balance in yearly installments through 1987.

Before it becomes effective, the proposed schedule still must be approved by the full Board of Commissioners and the City of Detroit, which has not paid on the purchase agreement since 1967.

In addition the committee heard presentations from two Detroit community leaders on the millage proposal for jail facilities, scheduled to appear on the May 18th presidential primary ballot in the county.

Both Lonnie Peek and Martha Jean Steinberg said their organizations represent a substantial segment of the community which would support a tax levy for construction of a new jail, but would oppose efforts for renovation of existing buildings for jail facilities.

Peek is director of the Concerned Citizens Council, a community research group, and Mrs. Steinberg is a WJLB radio station personality who also heads the Blue Collar Workers of American organization and leads a campaign called 'War Against Crime in the Name of Jesus.'

As an alternative to the jail construction, the Board of Commissioners is considering the remodeling of a former downtown J. L. Hudson warehouse into a detention facility.

Works bids accepted on freeway in Romulus

Work is expected to begin soon to make the first driveable portion of the area's newest freeway.

Bids are being accepted on an estimated $2.8 million paving project for 3.2-miles of I-275 through Romulus and Van Buren Township to a point just west of Wayne.

According to State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak, who first received information on the bids for the highway project, the paving will complete a 6-lane freeway from a point just south of a new Hannan Road bridge in Romulus to the former Penn Central Railroad tracks just west of Wayne in Canton Township.

Though the freeway portion is expected to be completed by December of this year, there is no indication it will be opened to traffic until entrance and exit links on the project are completed from I-94 to the I-275 freeway and from Michigan Avenue in Canton Township to the new freeway.

The only portion of the freeway now open to traffic runs from Ford Road in Canton Township to the construction site of the new I-96 freeway near Schoolcraft Road in Livonia.

The link of the freeway to be paved this year, according to Mahalak, will end approximately two miles south of the only driveable portion of the freeway in Canton Township.

None of the roadway is completed to date between the I-275 and I-75 terminus near Monroe and the projected new link.

Bids on the project is expected to be taken April 21.

ROBERT GREENSTEIN

Canton Township Supervisor Robert Greenstein's accusation recently that something "stinks" in the Wayne County Drain Commissioner's office should not be dismissed lightly.

Greenstein charged flatout that the drain commission office is not — and has not been — acting in the best interests of county residents.

He angrily criticized the gross lack of concern shown the public at the hands of Charles Youngblood and his staff.

At a recent drain hearing, Greenstein blistered the office's legal counsel over the merits of increasing citizens' drain cleaning assessments when, in fact, the county has been known not to do the work in the first place.

Greenstein was particularly incensed over the fact that special assessments have been tacked onto taxpayers' bills without notice and that some $20,000 in drain bills have been passed along to Canton Township on an at-large basis when, in fact, Canton handles its own drain work.

Greenstein is not alone in his criticism of the drain office's operations. Many other county officials are questioning the manner in which the office "carries out its work."

If, in fact, this office is operating as Greenstein and others contend it is, then the citizens of Wayne County are the victims of the biggest rip off seen in these parts in a long, long time.

County Commissioner Royce Smith said he was upset over the office's obvious "double taxation" policies.

Double taxation? Believe it. Chester Pierce, who is the counsel for the drain commissioner's office, admitted the double tax scheme. He said it was only "quasi-legal" at best. But, he added, it was the only way the drain commissioner could fund his office.

Van Buren Township Supervisor Elton Gollwitzer complained of the office's insensitive response — or no response at all — to taxpayers' complaints regarding what they claim are unwarranted assessments. Then there is Belleville Mayor Justin Emerson who was distressed over the fact his community waited in vain for two years to have a drain unplugged. And then when nothing was done, did it on its own at a cost of $500.

These are not isolated incidences. They are fast emerging as the rule rather than the exception.

Greenstein demanded an investigation of the drain office by either the state legislature or the attorney general's office.

We second that recommendation. All obviously is not right in the drain office. Few people really know what's going on.

We are not accusing the office of any wrongdoing but we are concerned over the manner with which it conducts its business. There simply are too many questions that are going unanswered. We'd like some answers.

Lonely Road

Are you walking down that lonely road, alone and so afraid?
Look up and all around you and find the friends you'd like to make.

Friends can make your life so happy and they will lend a helping hand.
So let's all work together and come join us when you can.

We'll all help one another wash away the grief and tears

And make things a little brighter from the downfall of the years.

This world is full of troubles, dark clouds fall around us all.
But if we loved and helped each other all our troubles would seem small.

Let's walk that lonely road together hand-in-hand we'll laugh and talk.
We've got so much in common so give it a try — why not?

My Boys

My boys mean all the world to me.
they make life so worthwhile.
Each place in life I go you'll see my boys and their sweet smiles.

A little shopping here and there and a dime or two to spend.
All your love and lots of care and a child is your best friend.

Now today they're gone to school.
I miss their shiny faces.

I'll keep busy as a rule
'til home I see them racing.

They're growing up so fast you see that I can't waste any time.
All this love I give they need these two little boys of mine.

Kissinger's foreign policy may be losing its appeal

By TOM OCHILTREE
Panax Washington Correspondent

As Panax sees it

WASHINGTON — Conservative Republicans, who have grown increasingly distrustful of Henry A. Kissinger, may have found a formula for securing the withdrawal of the Secretary of State from the Ford administration in the next few months, or sooner.

Rightwing whispers that Kissinger is a defeatist willing to concede first place in the world to the Soviet Union have found a loud echo in Ronald Reagan's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Actually, Reagan's attacks on Kissinger and on the current orientation of United States foreign policy have given the former California governor's campaign a much needed spark. Obviously, this is being felt in the White House.

Thus far President Ford has shrugged off the sniping at Kissinger, a man he has characterized as one of the great diplomatic minds in American history.

But then Ford, after appointing Nelson Rockefeller as his vice president, was unable to shield Rockefeller from the blasts of the same GOP rightwingers. In the end Rockefeller, under pressure, promised he would not stay on as a running mate with Ford after the expiration of the present term.

Conservative Republicans may not always get all their own way in the party, but they are strong enough to exercise a definite veto power over both candidates and policies.

To follow this line of reasoning further, one party source pointed out that the Conservatives may not be able to nominate Reagan but they undoubtedly could orchestrate an attack that would force Ford to drop Kissinger or prompt Kissinger to bow out "voluntarily" to ease the pressure on the President.

Not surprisingly, the campaigns against Rockefeller and Kissinger contained almost identical wording. In each case the man was described initially as being a political liability for Ford.

Even Sen. Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich.), has conceded to newsmen that in some Republican circles Kissinger's continued presence in the cabinet complicates Ford's task of securing the GOP presidential nomination.

Griffin is a personal friend of Ford and a believer in Kissinger's international negotiating skills. Griffin, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he regretted that Kissinger's record has become a campaign issue and added that he felt "the country will be better off if Dr. Kissinger stays as secretary of state."

Nevertheless, Griffin said he became aware of the depth of the anti-Kissinger feeling in the party while campaigning for Ford in the recent North Carolina primary, an election Reagan won.

If Rockefeller's experience is any guide, Kissinger is going to have to do some fancy riding to stay in the saddle the rest of this year, much less hope to continue on as secretary of state if Ford wins a full term in the White House in the November election.

In Rockefeller's case Howard H. (Bo) Callaway, Ford's original campaign manager, kept telling Republican audiences that Rocky was a drag on the GOP and on Ford's chances. Bo said this was just his own analysis, and the White House kept expressing great surprise that Callaway would talk like that.

Callaway since has fallen from grace, but not for getting Rockefeller. Callaway resigned his campaign job later when an investigation was launched to see if he was involved in a conflict-of-interest situation relating to a Colorado ski resort while he was still secretary of the army.

Now Ford's new campaign manager, Rogers C. B. Morton, may have started a process on Kissinger that Callaway started on Rockefeller.

Morton predicted the other day that Kissinger probably would not be secretary of state a year from today. This speculation was knocked down hard later by both Morton and the White House, but what Morton said still is floating around in the political air.

While Morton subsequently rejected any suggestion that he and the President were unhappy with Kissinger, there still was a ring of reality in his original comment.

Facade breaks down

The secret service details accompanying the President and the presidential aspirants of both parties are the one element lending a sense of order in the otherwise ill defined campaign drama.

They always are impeccably turned out in conservative business suits. There are two ways to identify them. Each man wears a radio earpiece. The wire for a white agent's earpiece is clear, for a black agent brown.

Always when the President or a candidate is speaking the agents stand with their backs toward him keeping watch on the crowd. Usually they are so still you tend to forget they are there. But it is a long, hard journey for them as well as the candidate to whom they are assigned. Occasionally the human element breaks through the blank facade.

One agent in the detail assigned to Reagan was heard humming softly to himself that old Broadway show tune with the line: "Wherever we go, whatever we do, we're gonna go through it together."

Little white fib haunts lawmakers

By BOB BERG
Panax Lansing Bureau Chief

LANSING — A little fib the Legislature told a year ago has come back to cause some problems.

The fib was contained in the bill which raised the state income tax rate from 3.9 percent to 4.6 percent to replace money lost when the sales tax on food and drugs was repealed. It came in a section which said the rate would roll back to 4.4 percent July 1, 1977.

Now, no one believed that roll back would ever take place. Legislators conceded privately it was just a gimmick, a little white lie designed to make it easier for some of their fainter-hearted colleagues to vote for the increase.

The idea was that those voting "yes" could go home and tell their folks they had won a concession. Once the 1976 election was over, the repealer would itself be repealed before it went into effect.

Gov. Milliken, in fact, publicly acknowledged that was the case, saying he did not expect the roll back to ever happen.

But that was before the latest budget crunch and the proposal to change the fiscal year and have it start Oct. 1 and end Sept. 30. As they added up the numbers some people on Speaker Bobby Crim's staff remembered the repealer. It meant a loss of $20 million the final three months of fiscal 1977. When things are as tight as they are, that is a very wide margin.

The situation must be changed now because the constitution requires the legislature to write a balanced budget. They can't count that $20 million, in other words, unless they have enacted the laws required to collect it.

But this is an election year and the primary is drawing closer. It's one thing to raise taxes just after an election, another to do it just before.

That sort of thing makes candidates very nervous.

It might raise some sympathy for the lawmakers if it weren't a problem they created for themselves. If they had been honest when they wrote the tax bill in the first place, they wouldn't face their current problem.

This isn't the first time a tax increase has been passed that way. Back in 1971 the increase from 2.6 to 3.9 percent was written to expire in one year, but then the expiration was repealed.

Backers of another increase this year have been proposing an increase which would be in effect for only 18 months. Every one knows tax increases are never temporary, however, and that it's the repealing section that gets repealed, not the tax increase.

Being a lawmaker can be a tough job. There are lots of demands on the individual involved.

But this is not one of the times to feel sorry for them. They are only reaping what they sowed.

As they see it

Reexamination sought on Medicaid cutback

To the editor:

It should be hoped that public reaction to state cuts of ancillary health services to Medicaid patients on January 1 is finally beginning to be heard. The thousands of signatures to petitions calling for restoration of these services presented to the state legislature this week represent only the tip of the iceberg of public resentment.

The cutback order denying nursing home Medicaid patients and other badly needed occupational and speech therapy, dental, hearing and vision services, and most non-legend drugs, represented a precipitant action on the part of the state.

In more human terms, this means, for example, that an elderly patient having cataract surgery will be unable to obtain corrective lenses, those in need of dentures will be unable to properly chew their food, the hard-of-hearing will live in an aura of silence, and stroke victims may be unable to recover use of their limbs or speech.

Medicaid patients, their families and friends are now beginning to realize the multiplying impact of these service cuts and the long range effect it will have on the health and welfare of older citizens.

The order struck hardest at the thousands of aged nursing home patients who must rely on Medicaid to assure they receive needed care for their illnesses but who are least able to voice a common complaint against cutback actions.

While all of us must appreciate the state's present financial problems, it is difficult for these senior citizens, who have contributed so much to the growth and development of the state, to understand why they must be the major victims.

'...difficult for senior citizens... to understand why they must be the major victims.'

The citizen action groups whom you would expect to immediately protest such action have been strangely silent and we commend Detroit Councilwoman Maryann Mahaffey for leading the petition drive to correct this injustice to the elderly.

The devastating effect of these cuts on the health and morale of elderly nursing home patients is becoming more apparent every day. While supposedly aimed at saving state funds, the rash action undoubtedly will mean greater costs in the long term both in tax dollars and human misery. The denial of corrective therapy will needlessly prolong the required period of skilled care for many patients and may doom others to live out their lives as permanent cripples of semi-invalids.

We urge everyone with a concern for our older citizens to call on their elected state representatives for a re-examination of cost cutting priorities that demand such sacrifice on the part of this defenseless group.

It's a long walk back

People who ride in car-pools are united in their concern for the environment. A problem may be that they're too closely united. Let's face it. The interior of an automobile makes for a tight-knit group. And the habits of a given car-pooler are right there for each fellow passenger to see — and perhaps hear and smell.

With this in mind, there is a clear need for car-pool rules about acceptable behavior while engaging in this chummy form of transportation.

We suggest you might consider adopting these norms, published by Wells, Fargo & Company to stagecoach riders in 1871:

"ABSTINENCE FROM LIQUOR is requested, but if you must drink, share a bottle. To do otherwise makes you appear selfish and unneighborly."

"IF LADIES ARE PRESENT, gentlemen are urged to forego smoking cigars and pipes as the odor of same is repugnant to the Gentle Sex. Chewing tobacco is permitted."

"GENTLEMEN MUST REFRAIN from the use of rough language in the presence of ladies and children. (Editor's note: These days, ladies should do the same.)"

"DON'T SNORE LOUDLY while sleeping or use your fellow passenger's shoulder for a pillow as friction may result."

"FIREARMS MAY BE KEPT on your person for use in emergencies. Do not fire them for pleasure or shoot at wild animals as the sound riles the horses."

"IN THE EVENT OF runaway horses, remain calm. Leaping from the coach in panic will leave you injured, and at the mercy of the elements, hostile Indians and hungry coyotes."

"GENTS GUILTY OF unchivalrous behavior toward lady passengers will be put off the stage. It's a long walk back. A word to the wise is sufficient."

People who ride in car-pools are to be lauded. If they will consider following Wells, Fargo's rules for right conduct, they'll probably be happy, too.

One other, more contemporary maxim: You probably can't go too far toward wronging a fellow passenger if your seatbelt is fastened.

PANAX OPINIONS

U.S. government: Practitioner of discrimination

By PATRICK J. BUCHANAN
Special Panax Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Accepting an invitation to bacon and eggs the other morning Hubert Humphrey sat down with reporters and made his contribution to the elevation of the democratic dialogue.

Presidential candidates who criticize Great Society programs as costly and ineffectual, said Humphrey, are engaging in a 'new form of racism.' And who, asked the startled reporters, are the closet racists on the campaign trail?

"Well," said the practitioner of the "politics of joy," "Jimmy Carter is no racist — let's get that clear."

Somewhere my old friend Murray Chotiner, who played Pagan to the young Richard Nixon's Oliver, is sailing. A fellow of infinite jest and some savvy Murray was always the indulgent tutor to the young who would learn politics at his knee.

Tell us, Murray, we would ask, what do you do when your candidate is behind, and your opponent has a hidden personal problem. Murray loved the question; his answer was always the same.

What you do, he said, is open every major speech with the categorical declaration: "The fact that my opponent has been running around with his secretary and will be charged with adultery in his coming divorce suit is not, I repeat not, an issue in this campaign." Murray would chuckle and call that "taking the high road."

And when Hubert, praying for a deadlocked Democratic convention, made sure those reporters knew, "Jimmy Carter is no racist ... let's get that clear," somewhere Murray smiled and said, well done.

Mr. Humphrey's suggestion, however, that candidates taking the 'anti-Washington' line are dabbling in racism was nothing compared to last week's contribution to domestic tranquility from the U.S. Supreme Court.

Ruling 5-3, the Court said that blacks discriminated against by an employer deserve more than fair compensation. They are to be brought into the office or factory, given full fringe benefits, pension rights, seniority and rank dating back to the day of the act of discrimination.

The victims of this judicial altruism will, as usual, be the innocent white working and middle-class males. Presumably, the Court feels that Italian-Americans and Polish-Americans and will be brimming over with brotherly love when they see blacks brought into the shop, jumped over them in seniority, and retained when the layoffs come, while the white folks drift on down to the unemployment office.

And the network boys can still give with the astonished looks when reporting surveys showing that lunch-bucket Democrats believe their government shows favoritism toward preferred minorities. The truth is, the government does. The truth is the U.S. Government is the foremost practitioner of discrimination in American life, a prime cause of continuing racial tensions and division.

How did it happen? How did the spirit and letter of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which promised 'equal opportunity' for all, become so perverted for an understanding, let us commend the address of Senator James Buckley on the Senate floor, March 2, 1976.

When that legislation was passed, Hubert Humphrey promised that this act "does not require an employer to achieve any kind of racial balance in the work force by giving any kind of preferential treatment to any individual or group."

Eleven years later, the "affirmative action" boys at HEW stuffed their computers with statistics from the nation's public schools, and came out with 90 school districts 'indicted by computer' for racial discrimination. Buffalo got the news with a cut-off of federal funds.

Twelve years after Humphrey's promise, Local 25 of the Sheet Metal Workers Union of New York City was ordered by the Department of "Justice" to hire minorities until representation reached 29 percent. Presumably, an unemployed white, with a family to support, who shows up looking for work will be told to go home and change skin color.

To terminate such outrages, Sen. Buckley proposes that all "quotas" based on race, religion, sex, creed, color or national origin be outlawed. Further, he asks that when an allegation of racism is made against a union or company, the burden of proof falls not upon some computer print-out, but the individual making the charge.

This last embodies a principle that had some currency in the eastern part of our country two centuries ago. But "innocent until proven guilty" is apparently out of step with the Brave New World of '76.

Less state control: Taxpayers' message reaching lawmakers

By WES THORP
Panax Lansing Bureau

LANSING — For an explanation of the defeat of the state land use act in the House Appropriations Committee, look to the short, stocky arms of its chairman, State Rep. Dominic J. Jacobetti.

The Negaunee Democrat's arms are being credited or blamed, as the case may be, with the defeat of the controversial bill to get the state more involved in land use planning.

The sponsor of the bill, State Rep. Philip O. Mastin, (D-Hazel Park) said, "What happened here is that the committee chairman puts his arm around you and asks you for your support."

And, for many, it is difficult, if not impossible, to say 'no' to one of the most powerful members of the legislature.

The appropriations committee voted 7-9 not to report the bill out of committee.

The big question is what effect Jacobetti had on the three negative votes from committee members from the city of Detroit.

In the coming weeks, the city of Detroit will be asking Michigan to support several functions traditionally paid for by the city. To be successful in getting the money, it will be necessary to have the support of Jacobetti.

Knowing that Jacobetti feels adamantly against the land use bill, it would be hard to say 'no' to his request that you vote against it.

During the past weeks, Jacobetti has said he would do anything in his power to defeat the bill; that he would use any maneuver that he has learned during his 22 years in the legislature.

He agreed, however, to House Speaker Bobby Crim's request that the bill be brought up for a committee vote.

Beside Jacobetti's considerable influence against the bill, there were other factors involved in its defeat.

It's election year and lawmakers are hesitant about tackling a controversial proposal so close to the time when they have to face the people at the polls.

The land use proposal has generated all kinds of spare talk all over the state about what it would do. There has been speculation that landowners would have to go to the state for a simple building permit, as well as charges that the proposal is designed to keep industry out of Michigan.

At hearings around the state, property owners jammed hearing rooms and demanded that the legislature defeat Mastin's proposal.

Lawmakers were deluged with hundreds of letters telling them that if they voted for the bill that they would not be reelected.

This kind of pressure has had an effect which was felt when the committee vote was taken.

The Mastin proposal also comes during a time when there's a sentiment against government regulation. There's talk about weakening many of the governmental regulations in effect; people are complaining that the government, at all levels, is too involved in their lives.

Their message has been getting to many of the lawmakers.

The future of state land use controls depends on the influence which Gov. Milliken and the Democratic legislative leadership is able to exert on members who are reluctant to alienate a restless constituency.

Without some leadership pressure from those two sides, it's obvious the legislature will not act on the proposal to further involve the state in deciding land use policy.

Bicentennial blackjack

Radicals practice political terrorism

By JEFFREY ST. JOHN

Special Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — "We are calling on the wives and children of America's top business leaders," asserts the radical left-wing People's Bicentennial Commission, "to begin a frank and open discussion, in their homes, of the immoral and amoral behavior of America's financial leaders."

The above statement is part of a tape-recorded message being sent to the private homes of some 8,000 corporate executives by the radical People's Bicentennial Commission (PBC) during the next month. It is a new form of political terrorism conceived by the PBC against the wives and families of businessmen, using the 200th birthday of our nation as a political smokescreen to push radical socialist ideas. Until now PBC has relied on propaganda in the media and trying to disrupt bicentennial events like the 200th celebration of the Battle of Concord earlier this spring in Massachusetts. It was then that PBC radicals tried to prevent President Ford from speaking to a large crowd.

Sending through the mails what is clearly material intended to harass the families of businessmen is nothing less than the work of political thugs. The campaign is justified on the dubious and dishonest grounds that American corporations and executives are engaging in corporate criminality. "The new ethic of business immorality," states the PBC, "is poisoning the social fabric of our country and it must be stopped before it pervades every aspect of our life and turns us into a nation of cutthroats and thieves."

The immorality of the PBC campaign can be grasped if one pauses to reflect on the all-encompassing implication of their charges. Individuals in entirely separate corporations, because they happen to be affiliated with business, is the standard of judgement used by the PBC. The mere fact that a family head is a businessman makes him suspect and subject to harassment.

This is not only the crude smear technique of guilt by association, but is immoral since it is a fundamental repudiation of the concept of justice that judges an individual on his or her actions — with each considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law — and individuals are not lumped together as a class or a group and charged with alleged criminality. Moreover the yardstick PBC uses in acting as judge and jury of corporate morality, is equally dishonest. It cites only a half dozen corporations that made payoffs to foreign political leaders. Yet it extends suspicion and guilt to 8,000 families. In its letter, PBC seeks to turn the wives and children of business executives into grand inquisitors of their own husbands and fathers. "This leaves the responsibility up to you," states the PBC letter to members of the family of businessmen. "Why? Because moral conduct starts with the family unit. You and your family should take the necessary steps now to make sure your house is in order, spiritually and morally."

Only a Marxist who is dedicated to violent class conflict would use the tactic of sowing the seeds of suspicion among members of the same family. Like Marxists before them, the PBC mouths moralizing platitudes while using immoral means to achieve its end. The efforts of the PBC to use the bicentennial as a political weapon are to discredit the American business community as a whole. In using the bicentennial as a political blackjack the long-range goal of the PBC is to generate a climate of public hostility toward private industry so that the public will demand government controls on business and even take over vital industries.

The ominous implication of the PBC's latest campaign of harassing the families of businessmen, or more precisely the employees of business, is that it may prove a prelude to more direct and violent action in this bicentennial year. For months the FBI and members of Congress have been receiving reports that left-wing radicals are planning to use the bicentennial as a justification for acts of violence, including bombings.

The PBC is posturing to the public that it is acting in the spirit of the American Revolutionary heroes of 1776. In reality, they are radicals more in keeping with the murderous types during the French Revolution of 1789. During the bloody 'Reign of Terror,' the French radicals judged men, not on the basis of individual acts, but because they belonged to a particular class and thus were condemned as enemies of the people. As the historian of the French Revolution, Otto J. Scott, has pointed out about the PBC: "They are emulating the French radicals, not the American Revolutionaries of 1776, since they are singling out one group, businessmen, as the cause for many social problems much as the French radicals singled out the French aristocracy as the sole cause of France's troubles."

'Excuse me, sir, am I going to Washington?'

From Panax Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Rep. Marvin L. Esch (R-Mich.), knows he is in a tough political campaign for one very good reason. His body keeps telling him he is not getting enough sleep.

Esch, who is seeking the Republican nomination for the U.S. Senate, has faced a busy schedule in Congress at a time when he needs to move around Michigan making himself known and discussing issues.

"To keep up with what is going on in the House and still get back home frequently, I have been making about two round trips a week on flights from Washington to Detroit," he said.

He usually tries to divide the time in the air into three parts. One is for sleeping, the second for going through his brief case and the third for reading newspapers.

"The other night I woke up in the middle of a flight, and for the life of me, I couldn't recall right away whether I was going to or coming from Washington," Esch explained. "Finally I asked the man in the next seat."

The man explained the direction the plane was bound and then smiling sweetly told Esch: "I'm not surprised congressman. I have wondered before if you knew whether you were coming or going."

MISS SNYR

MISS MOORE

MISS FRANK

SNYR-BARKS
A spring wedding is being planned by Carol Mary Snyr of Romulus and Kenneth Ray Barks of Belleville. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Snyr of 10249 Ozga Road, Romulus and Chester Snyr of Tecumseh. A 1975 graduate of Romulus High School, she currently is employed at the University of Michigan School of Dentistry. Her fiancé graduated from Belleville High School in 1966 and is employed by Morris Levine and Associates, Inc. He is the son of former Belleville residents, Mrs.

Beatrice D. Barks and Raymond L. Barks.
MOORE-STINEHOUR
Denise L. Moore of Waterford Township and Christopher F. Stinehour of Belleville are another twosome who plan to be married in the spring, except that the wedding will be held in 1977.

Announcement of their engagement is made by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore of 3699 Mark Rd., Waterford Township. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stinehour of 407 E. Huron River Dr., Belleville. Miss Moore attended Northern Michigan University and presently is employed at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac. Her fiancé is in his senior year at Michigan Technological University in Houghton.

FRANK-CHARETTE
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Frank of 10381 Pardee Rd., Taylor, announce the engagement and August wedding plans of their daughter, Margo Kay, to Eugene Phillip Charette, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Charette of 18824 Savage Rd., Belleville. A 1969 graduate of John F. Kennedy High School in Taylor, Miss Frank earned her degree in education at Eastern Michigan University (EMU) in 1973. She currently is employed by the Taylor School District. Her fiancé, a 1969 alumnus of Belleville High School, also graduated from EMU in 1973 and he, too, is on the teaching staff of the Taylor School District. St. Paul United Church of Christ in Taylor has been reserved for the young couple's Aug. 14 wedding.

BRIDENTHAL-CONNELLY
St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Dearborn Heights will be the setting for the April 24 noon wedding of Robin Lynn Bridenthal and Thomas P. Connelly II, both of Romulus. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bridenthal of 5932 E. Maple, Romulus, announce their daughter's engagement and spring nuptial date. Miss Bridenthal attended Romulus Junior High School and Taylor Center High School. Her fiancé, a former Romulus High School student, is employed as assistant manager at Maverick Oil Co.

SENIFF-GORRING
The engagement and approaching wedding of their daughter, Sharon Seniff, and William Gorrington is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Seniff of Belleville. The bride-elect, who is employed as a secretary for National Bank of Detroit in Wayne, is planning to be married the evening of May 1 at the First United Methodist Church of Belleville. Her fiancé, the son of Mrs. Martha Gorrington of McKeesport, Pa., resides in Inkster and is employed at Ford Motor Company, Wayne Assembly Plant.

BPW names slate for new club year

The election committee was in charge of the April 5 meeting of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW) when it met at Faith United Methodist Church for the monthly dinner. Because of the election, it was a closed meeting. Those named to head the club for the 1976-77 period were Barbara Mitchell, president; Bertha Rettig, vice-president; Georgia Badgett, recording secretary; Margaret Saunders, treasurer; and Bonnie Pavlet, corresponding secretary. Delegates elected for the 15th District were Barbara Mitchell, Bonnie Pavlat, Mary Huff, Eva Luper and Leona Farr. Mrs. Mitchell, being president, is the national delegate with Bea Boldt as an alternate. All new officers will be state delegates. Helen White and Dorothy Westergard, who attended the Bicentennial Legislative Conference in Washington, D.C., in giving their report stressed that the ERA (equal rights amendment) has been promoted throughout the conference. Their trip included a visit to the office of Rep. Marvin Esch (R-2nd Dist.), an interview with Congressman Robert Griffin (R-Mich.) and a tour of the capitol building. The finale of their trip was a stop at BPW headquarters on Massachusetts Avenue. The District 15 spring meeting of the BPW was held April 7 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Dearborn with 16 members from Belleville, one guest and one young careerist, Jan Hink, attending. It being an election meeting, Betty Savage of Belleville presided with another Belleville member, Margaret Saunders, chairing the nominating committee. The group was reminded that April 24 is the date for the club's annual spring rummage sale which will be held at the Masonic Temple on Main Street. Besides election of officers, the evening program included a hobby night with members displaying their various talents and avocations.

Romulus woman is among new Girl Scout director appointees

A Romulus woman and a former Huron School District teacher were among the four new staff field directors recently appointed to the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council. The foursome (with responsibility for Girl Scouting in Ann Arbor, eastern and western Washtenaw county, Westland-Wayne and the Plymouth-Northville area) was announced by Mrs. Jo Stevens, executive director of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council. Mrs. Jeanette Gray of Romulus has served as Romulus troop services director for the past two years. A former junior high school teacher and drama coach in Eden, Ohio, she will supervise the 101 scout troops in Wayne and Westland. She is a 1971 graduate of Eastern Michigan University and currently is doing graduate work there.

An Ann Arbor resident, Mrs. Joyce Smith, a Girl Scout for 25 years, has served as a troop services director, a volunteer supervisor in Ann Arbor since 1966. For five years she was chairman of the Ann Arbor

Mrs. Blend elected to head VB Garden Club

The April 5 meeting of the Huron Valley Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Merrill Bird of Potter Drive, Belleville. During the business session conducted by Mrs. William Hennells, president, one newcomer, Mrs. Dale Rennell (the former Kathie Kureth), was voted into membership.

Plans for the Arbor Day plant sale set for April 30 were discussed and final arrangements made. The sale will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the former Dancer's Department Store on Main Street. Club members will sell small crab trees, seeds, indoor and outdoor plants and other items.

Election of officers resulted in Mrs. D.W. Blend being named president; Mrs. James Kause, vice-president; Mrs. W. Harold Roberts, secretary; Mrs. John MacDermid, treasurer, and Mrs. Dale Kaulitz, corresponding secretary. The new slate will be installed at the June meeting.

The program for the day featured Mrs. Christine Diehl who spoke on her week at the Higgins Lake Conservation School which was sponsored by the club.

Members will next meet at 10 a.m. May 3 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Books where a short business meeting will be held. The group will then drive to Birmingham for a wild flower tour including lunch along the way.

Belleville coed joins society

Belleville coed Lorel Wolfe, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wolfe of 41910 Savage Road, has been initiated into the Arista Chapter of Mortar Board at Western Michigan University.

Miss Wolfe, who is majoring in dietetics, was among 25 students initiated into chapter of Mortar Board, one of the highest nationally recognized members of the Association of College Honor Societies.

The honor society recognizes all facets of the student's achievement from scholarship to service to the campus and surrounding community to outstanding leadership.

St. Anthony's receives flag from VFW Auxiliary No. 4434

The VFW Auxiliary to Huron River Post No. 4434 of Belleville recently presented an American flag to the students of St. Anthony's Catholic School at its Bicentennial program. Americanism chairman Coral Smrcka; national home chairman Shirley Cullin; chaplain Sophie Zoller and president Edna Harris attended the presentation which included the opportunity of teaching the children respect for the flag. Anyone wishing to be included in a flag presentation is asked to call Mrs. Smrcka at 697-8183 to arrange an appointment.

The regular business meeting of the auxiliary will be held at 7:30 p.m. April 15 at the VFW Hall on Bemis Road. Since this is to be election meeting, members are urged to attend.

Sheats clan gather for 83rd birthday

By Mrs. Joseph Spring

On April 6 Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson of Elwell Road were among relatives who gathered at the home of her mother, Mrs. Emmer Sheats of New Boston, to help celebrate her 83rd birthday during a buffet dinner.

Relatives from Ohio who were present were her sister, Mrs. Dale Starkey of Napoleon; a brother, Harold Watson of Defiance, and a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard O. Watson of Toledo. Others were present from Lincoln Park, Ann Arbor, Milan, Belleville and New Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Atyeo of Church Street have returned home after spending three weeks with the latter's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Turner and family, at Santa Rosa, Calif.

While there they visited a grandson, Henry Nichols Jr. of Reding, and spent a day touring San Francisco.

Mrs. Roy Dunham and daughter, Linda, of Fremont, Mich., were recent callers on Mr. and Mrs. Darryl H. Raymond Sr. of Wabash Street and other relatives in the city.

Luncheon guests Wednesday of Muriel Smith of Liberty Street were friends, Mrs. George Rabum of Monroe, Mrs. David Duey of Ypsilanti and Marion Hartwick of Martinsville Road.

One-time Belleville residents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Oakley of Fairfield Glade, Tenn. were recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton of Bedell Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drysdale of Alden Drive returned home Wednesday after having spent the past two months at Lake Placid, Fla. While there they enjoyed touring central Florida and visited with friends from Wyandotte and Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dolph of Edgar Street spent Sunday in Kalamazoo with their daughter, Paula, who is in her senior year at Western Michigan University. Enroute home they called on friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Potter, one-time Belleville residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Woods of Manchester, Tenn. were callers on friends in the community last week.

Albert Day of Belleville Road recently returned home after a three-week trip to Florida. Enroute he attended The Grand Ole Opry at Nashville, Tenn., visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Tiethmiller and family at Cullman, Ala. and stopped at the Ave Maria Grotto at Saint Bernadine.

In Florida he spent some time with friends at St. Cloud, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bartolacci; attended services at the Drive-in Christian Church at Daytona Beach and visited Ft. Orange, Cypress Gardens and St. Augustine.

Enroute home he called on Mr. and Mrs. Milton Oakley at Fairfield Glade, Tenn and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John McGlorin in Louisville, Ky. and toured the Air Force Museum at Dayton, Ohio.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Renton of Martinsville Road were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Niebauer and family of Baroda, Mich.

After spending the winter months at Boynton Beach, Fla., George S. Renton has returned to his home on Martinsville Road.

Mrs. Muriel Smith of Liberty Street was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyers of Jackson, who were celebrating the homecoming of their son, James, and his new bride from Scotland.

Rotary Anns' debut into fashions termed a success; 300 attend show

Spectators at the recent Spring Fashion Show sponsored by the Romulus Rotary Anns expressed hopes that the club would make this an annual event for the community since it drew a full house of some 300 patrons.

Held at the Romulus VFW Club (which was donated free of charge for the fund-raiser) the show featured the latest styles from Kureth's Apparel Shop of Belleville. Divided into six different segments, the program opened with "A Flag Fanfare" with the accent on red, white and blue costumes.

Commentator Kathie Kureth Rennell next introduced "An Old-Fashioned Girl" review with the models garbed in the look of yesteryear currently being promoted during the Bicentennial observance.

"You've Come a Long Way, Baby" was in direct contrast with its kicky 1976 look in sports and casual wear. And in keeping with the season, mannequins next emphasized "The Easter Parade" and a line of colorful spring ensembles.

The spotlight then zeroed in on a line of evening apparel with the enticing label of "Some Enchanted Evening." And putting the Rotary Anns' "baby" to bed was the finale, "Sleepy Time Gal," with penguins, robes and other sleepwear highlighted.

Ethel Lovette, Rotary Anns president, delivered the welcome address with Beverly Reel, fashion show chairman, and Marge McCrory drawing the door prize winners during intermission.

Modeling the clothing which was geared for all age groups from young teen to grandmother were twins Carol and Kathy Murray, June Rennell, Sue Harner, Wanda Williams, Trisha Harner, Patty Flavell, Louise Leonard and Lee Smith.

Still others were Jan Kampton, June Kureth, Joy Russell, Albena DeMara, Brenda Reel, Barbara Shenk, Kelly Knapp, Marilyn Holmberg and Loria Rochette.

The show had as a special feature hair styles by Jerry's Foxy Lady of Belleville, courtesy Louise Leonard and her staff. Coiffures were geared to compliment the type of clothing each model was to wear.

Mrs. Lovette and her fellow officers, Naomi Baum, Helen Corzine, Sharon Whichello, Eula Mach and Marge McCrory; Beverly Reel, chairman, and the entire Rotary Ann contingent wish to acknowledge the following who donated time, services, equipment and prizes for the show: Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Kureth, Jerry's Foxy Lady, the Romulus VFW, Doug Brown Music Co., Mach's Flowers, Roberts Brothers, Edgemont School and The Romulus Roman and The Belleville Enterprise.

Thank you's also go to Mr. and Mrs. Gary Grace of Daly Restaurant, Mary Oakley, Annette Mach, Ruth Jacox, Dale and Kathie Rennell, Glenn Vaught, Carol Bailey and the Display and Exhibit Co. of Wayne.

Earning credits

The community service program, which is now operating at Belleville High School, is based on the philosophy that learning can take place outside the regular classroom. A qualified student is anyone with a desire to learn, grow and improve; a teacher being anyone who can transmit knowledge or skills to a student. Robin Westfall and Amy Hutchcraft are among those receiving one-half credit in social studies for successfully completing 120 hours of volunteer service in the community. The program includes service within Van Buren Public Schools, in governmental agencies and in service areas. Students are encouraged to involve two or more areas to gain a variety of experience. The program is expanding at the present time but sponsors are needed in all areas. Jill Marie's christening features five generations

Five generations were present when little Jill Marie Zylka was honored at a christening party April 4. The infant, born Jan. 29, was baptized during the 10 a.m. service at St. David's Episcopal Church in Garden City. The Rev. Ralph McGimpsey presided and Godparents were Richard Zylka of Westland, Deborah LaLonde of Canton Township and Beverly Salek of Garden City.

Jill Marie shared the spotlight with her great-great grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Marzec of Detroit, who had marked her 82nd birthday the day before. Continuing the line of descendancy at the party were the baby's great-grandmother, Mrs. Sophie Koncik of Detroit; her grandmother, Mrs. Arleen Zylka of Westland, and her father, James Zylka of Romulus.

James and his wife, Kerry, played host to some 32 guests from Detroit, Southgate, Garden City, Westland and Romulus at a buffet dinner party.

AUTO FACTS

by Jr. Kosin

Advantages and disadvantages of car body styles? A four door sedan makes the rear seat more accessible than in two door cars, and the initial cost of a four door sedan is lower in some areas than a four door hardtop. If you have children, however, you may prefer the two door sedan, because there are no rear doors for children to open accidentally. A convertible car gives an open-air feeling with the top down that is unmatched even by a sunroofed car, and depreciation is generally lower than for roofed cars. The station wagon gives much more space, if space is what you want. All in all, it is up to the individual to decide which style car best suits his needs.

Whatever style of car you prefer, you'll find the parts and tools you need to keep it running efficiently at KOSIN'S AUTO PARTS, 26831 Michigan, Inkster. Our huge inventory includes quality parts for both foreign and domestic cars. We also have a complete machine shop service for turning brake drums, doing valve work or rebuilding engines. Stop in for mufflers, batteries, fan belts, hoses, or any other part or accessory. We are open weekdays from 8 A.M. until 8 P.M., and on Saturdays until 5 P.M. Call us at 563-3894. BELLEVILLE — The Women's Study Club of Belleville will meet at 8 p.m. tonight (April 14) at the Lemontree Club House on Denton Road. The topic, in keeping with the Bicentennial, will be "The History of the Flag" presented by a guest speaker. Members are urged to bring guests.

ROMULUS — A Mother and Daughter Banquet will be held at the Romulus Community United Methodist Church at 6 p.m. May 1. The United Methodist Women (UMW) are sponsoring the program which will feature a Hawaiian theme. Tickets, available at the church office or from UMW members, are $3 for adults and $1.50 for children 12 and under. The dinner will be held in the church fellowship hall at 11190 Olive Street.

BELLEVILLE — An Arbor Day plant sale will be conducted from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. April 30 by the Huron Valley Garden Club. The former Dancer's Department Store on Main Street will be the site of activities which will include for sale small crab trees, seeds, indoor and outdoor plants and miscellaneous other items.

BELLEVILLE — The Smoking Clinic will hold an evaluation of the program and a graduation night for those participating in the session at 7:30 p.m. April 26. Families and friends are encouraged to attend the program at the First United Methodist Church of Belleville.

Park account growing

The First United Methodist Church of Belleville joined the ranks of Belleville Bicentennial Park Project contributors when representatives presented a $500 check to Belleville Mayor Justin Emerson (right) a member of the Bicentennial committee. The Rev. Joy Arthur looks on as administrative board chairman Mrs. Lester Corzine hands the check on. Also present for the occasion was Mrs. Eby Gault, president of the United Methodist Women who already had contributed $200 to the project earlier in the year.

Music teachers learning through special classes

Music teachers are finding more than music and music equipment in the Wayne Music Center these days.

As part of a continuing music education program at the store, located in downtown Wayne, Dr. Marian Verhaalen recently concluded a 24-credit hour teacher training program, attracting instructors from Jackson, Hillsdale, Lansing, the Detroit metropolitan area and Windsor, Ont.

Dr. Verhaalen, a well-known composer and music educator, is a consultant with the National Piano Foundation and a member of the faculty of Alverno College of Milwaukee, Wis.

Through her workshops at the Wayne Music Center, she has helped train teachers in group piano techniques, with special emphasis on improvisation, sightreading, transpositional skills and philosophies of creative music education.

Dr. Verhaalen, who received her doctorate in music education from Columbia University in New York in 1971, has made a major contribution to understanding of Brazilian music in the United States. Her approach to music education also has been the foundation of the development of the Contemporary Group Piano at the Wayne Music Center since its inception two years ago.

Students in the program are trained by certified teachers to become creative musicians rather than receiving mechanical instruction in a few selected pieces.

Dr. Verhaalen was introduced to that form of teaching piano in 1963, when she attended a teachers' workshop by Dr. Robert Pace. She later served as his teaching assistant while at Columbia University.

She has translated many of Pace's teaching materials into Portuguese for the Brazilian people. She also has found that using such a method, students learn any music for the piano quickly than would otherwise be possible.

TALKING
Harold RediskeUHT Memorial
Funeral Home

Consoling the bereaved

Harold Rediske

Most people feel awkward when attending a wake of a funeral and being confronted by the bereaved. There's a hesitancy of manner, a fear of saying the "wrong" thing, an apprehension about possibly making someone cry.

What most people do not seem to realize is that these mixed feelings are very normal and natural reactions to death and those involved in a death situation. Few of us are gifted as speakers or writers to choose the correct words to express our very sincere and personal feelings.

So, what do you say to a grieving widow? Usually, we advise a very simple "I'm sorry," accompanied by a firm grip of the hand, an arm about the shoulder. Such silent expressions of genuine concern are much more appropriate than talkative attempts at eulogies or forced expressions such as "I know how you feel." In other words, we should be sensitive to the feelings of those who are grieving. Often this will make us more silent, more willing to listen, rather than forcing a conversation.

Most people who have suffered a personal loss will be far more moved and comforted by quiet, emotional expressions of sympathy than by a litany of the virtues of the person who has died.

Above all, don't try to "shake" a person out of his grief. Grief is a natural, wholesome process by which the living are encouraged toward a healthy life after the loss of a loved one. Only time can heal grief. And only love can bring about its fullest therapeutic effect.

Eva Luper elected PM prexy

The April meeting of the Past Matrons' Association of Belleville Chapter No. 73, Order Eastern Star, was held at the First United Methodist Church April 1 with Past Matron Rachel Hamilton hostess. The usual 12:30 luncheon was served by several ladies from the church to 20 past matrons and two guests, Lenore Gaddy, Worthy Matron; and Mildred Spring, a visitor from North Bend, Ore. Also present were two Past Matrons, Irene Heininger and Josie Raymond, who hadn't been able to attend for some time. Tables were colorful with spring flowers.

Past Matron Katherine Spring was presented with a beautiful birthday cake by Past Matrons Ruby Clayton and Rose Ann Welt in honor of her recent 80th birthday.

Dorothy Kellas conducted the business meeting with Beatrice Boldt having the devotions. The annual election took place with the following results: Eva Luper, president; Rachel Hamilton, vice-president; Elda Bohl, secretary; Frances McAtee, treasurer, and Dorothy Kellas, chaplain. Florence Sugars conducted the installations.

The hosts entertained with a paper and pencil game with Eva Luper and Effie Kerbyson as prize winners.

The May 6 meeting will be held at the church with Mrs. Kerbyson as hostess.

NOW sets date for show, lunch

The Mid-Western Wayne County Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) will sponsor a luncheon and fashion show April 24 at the Fairlane Manor, 19000 Hubbard Dr., Dearborn.

Entitled "Fashions for Feminists," the show will feature easy-care, spring styles for today's woman. Fashions will be presented by Harvi's.

The program will begin at noon, with a cash bar, followed by luncheon and the fashion show. Tickets are $8.50 each and deadline for reservations in April 17.

For ticket information phone the Midwestern NOW line, at 336-2244.

Mid-Western Wayne County NOW cludes the cities of Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Inkster, Wayne, Westland, Romulus Garden City, Canton Township, Belleville and Van Buren Township.

Hills add daughter to family

There's a new addition to the Bill Hill home at 22 Pine Dr. in Suburban Estates of Belleville. She's the baby daughter who made her debut April 2 at Outer Drive Hospital in Lincoln Park.

Arriving at 7:21 a.m., the 5 lb., 8 3/4 oz. infant, who was titled "Heather Margaret," is the couple's second daughter; their first, Autumn, being 2 1/2 years of age.

Mrs. Hill is the former Donna Auer, the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Granger of Belleville. The paternal grandmother is Mrs. Margaret Hill of River Rouge.

Flowers anywhereAs fed-beef supply rises;
lower prices are offered

Americans love beef ...they eat more of it than any other food. And for smart shoppers now is the time to keep an eye on advertised specials and to stock up by purchasing an extra cut of beef for the freezer.

"Current attractive retail beef prices are the result of a shift in the beef supply," says John L. Huston, vice president, Beef Program, National Live Stock and Meat Board. "Consumers are noticing the quantity of fed-beef increasing. As this continues, retail prices will remain attractive providing the perfect opportunity for beef-loving Americans to stock up."

Huston noted that since last July when average retail price for Choice beef reached nearly $1.62 per pound, (according to the USDA), prices have been on a steady decline to just under $1.42 per pound (average, first 3 weeks of February — a more than 12 percent decrease).

The easing of retail prices and the increasing quantities of fed-beef are direct results of last year's record feed grain crops. In 1972 about 78 percent of all marketed cattle were grain-fed. Grain was less expensive in surplus. It was economical to feed grain to cattle to speed up production and improve quality. In 1973 and '74 poor crops resulted in grain shortages and skyrocketing production costs for cattle feeders. Less than 50 percent of cattle marketed in 1975 were grain-fed. Feeders simply could not afford to buy the grain. Availability of fed-beef dropped off while more non-fed varieties of beef made their first appearance in 20 years in some markets.

Following 1975's record harvest, cattle on feed figures began to increase last fall. The percentage of fed-cattle could rise to 65 percent in 1976.

"Stable grain prices and lower grain costs reducing feeding costs by as much as 10c per pound of gain has encouraged feeders to increase the numbers of cattle in their feedlots," said Huston. "The build-up started last fall is resulting in more fed-beef and easing retail prices today."

"Current beef supplies and low cattle prices are causing a difficult cost-price squeeze for cattle feeders," said Huston. "This is, however, an excellent opportunity for consumers to save on their food budget."

Douglas nets honor

A Hannan Road Elementary School fifth-grade student has received the highest award in Cub Scouting.

Irin Victor Douglas, 11, has received the Arrow of Light Award for his achievements as a member of Cub Scout Pack 857.

Glenn Yeager, den leader and Cubmaster Andrew Nagy presented the youth the award, the only one which can be carried into Boy Scouting, at the regular March 25 pack meeting.

The scout received a total of six awards during the past year, his third in Cub Scouting. Irin is interested in baseball and is a member of the Huron Township Little League. He contributes regularly to the St. Joseph's Indian School and has studied all phases of Indian life.

The son of George and Lola Douglas, Irin lives at 21185 Haggerty Road, Huron Township.

Could be fraudulent

O'Neill warns against chain letters

Fraudulent chain letters have been around for many years, but odds are better now that a resident may receive one — this time with a Bicentennial theme — according to Belleville Postmaster R. J. O'Neill.

"A scheme, which involves the mailing of U.S. Savings Bonds, has shown up in major urban centers of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, Virginia and Florida," O'Neill said. "The letter with the Bicentennial gimmick urges those receiving it to mail $2 — $1 for each 100 years — to the person whose name is first on the list in celebration of our nation's 200th birthday."

"Chief Postal Insp. C. Neil Benson has informed us that actual profits from chain letters usually are obtained only by those who originate, or enter, the scheme very early."

Chain letters requesting money, or other items of value, are non-mailable under the Federal Mail Fraud Statute. They are considered fraudulent because of the likelihood that the chain will be broken and most participants will get nothing from their involvement.

The chain letter usually requires each of its recipients to sell, or mail copies, to a specified number of others, who also would be asked to continue the chain of mailings. Typically, the chain expands so rapidly that the number of prospects

A chain letter, requiring each purchaser to send copies to six others, theoretically would reach the entire literate population of the earth by the time it reached its 12th link, O'Neill explained.

The fact that chain letters are not mailed does not exclude the scheme from being a violation of law, if the scheme involves the mailing of bonds or other valuable items, he added.

On the other hand, so-called chain letters which call for nothing more than recipes, picture post cards and the like, ordinarily are considered to be mailable because the items sent do not constitute a "thing of value," under applicable law. However, postal cards involving "good luck" chain prayers, which contain a threat of bad luck to those who break the chain, are prohibited because it is against the law to place threatening matter on the outside of mail.

Postmaster O'Neill cautioned the public to be especially alert for numerous current chain letters which contain a claim that they have been reviewed by some legal authority and officially approved for mailing.

"This is not true," O'Neill said. "I would appreciate having all chain letters received in this area promptly turned over to me, or to postal inspectors so that we can help protect the public from this illegal activity."

By soil district

Tree orders still taken

Western Wayne County residents have until April 20 to submit orders to the Wayne County Soil Conservation District for trees that are sold annually at low prices by the conservationists.

Residents can order trees by mail by sending the request plus full payment to the county Soil Conservation District Office at P.O. Box 642, Westland 48185. The plants will be at the 4-H Fairgrounds at 10871 Quirk Road near Belleville April 24 for pick-up between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Participants must order a minimum of 50 trees of a single species. Available through the program are Austrian pine, $3 per 50; white spruce, $3.50 per 50; red pine, $3 per 50; scotch pine, $3 per 50; white pine, $3 per 50; norway spruce, $3.50 per 50; blue spruce, $4.50 per 50; honeysuckle, $3.50 per 50; and autumn olive, $4.50 per 50.

Conservationists said they will acknowledge receiving your order by return mail, or will return your payment in full, if for some reason the order cannot be filled.

Residents with further questions can call 722-6080 between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Crafts exhibit set for center

An exhibit of paintings and crafts will be shown at the Southland Mall, located at Eureka Road and I-75, from April 29 to May 9.

p.m. Monday through Saturday and from 12 to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Michigan artists and craftsmen will exhibit paintings, wood and metal sculpture, sand painting, decoupage, lapidary, ceramics, macrame, hand-designed leather items and hand-crafted furniture.

Paintings will be displayed on specially erected units throughout the enclosed mall, with demonstrations by the participating artists and craftsmen. Another feature of the art show will be a group of portrait and caricature artists.

The Southland Mall exhibit will be open from 9:30 a.m. until 9

Jazz returns in inn's show

Jazz knows no region, no boundaries. It's there for everybody to enjoy, no matter where you live.

And that's why the Detroit Hot Jazz Society is so excited in its latest endeavor to bring traditional jazz to the initiated as well as the uninitiated in Wayne County.

For four hours on April 25 (that's a Sunday) jazz pianist Bobby Hirsch

Metropark maps set

The new Huron-Clinton Metropark map, showing the location and facilities available at the 10 metroparks, plus freeways and roads throughout Wayne, Livingston, Macomb, Oakland and Washtenaw counties — now are available for free.

To obtain the maps send your name, address and one 13-cent stamp for each map requested up to six maps to Metropark Map-Dept., 3050 Penobscot Building, Detroit 48226.

For larger orders contact the Huron Clinton Metroparks Office in Detroit.

The maps also are available at Metro Beach near Mt. Clemens, Stony Creek Metropark near Utica, Kensington Metropark near Milford, Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter and Lower Huron Metropark near Belleville.

For additional information call 961-5865.

Science unit goes to 'birds' with exhibits

What could be more timely for spring than an award-winning Metropolitan Detroit Science and Engineering Fair exhibit, "Birds in Detroit," now on display at the Detroit Science Center, located at 52 East Forest.

Created by 14-year-old Kathy Kornacki, a former student at the Detroit Day School for the Deaf and Detroit resident now of Gales Ferry, Connecticut, the exhibit contains an 80-year-old egg collection and the experimentation, observations and conclusions of three years of research.

Kathy's project earned a 1st-place Seventh Grade-Life Science Award at Wayne State University, a first place in the Detroit Day School for the Deaf Science Fair, and a special award from the Detroit Science Center. It was exhibited at Cobo Hall last spring.

Organized to reflect the changes in year by year activities of Detroit area will unleash his keyboard artistry with the ease, skill and determination of the masters.

He'll be doing it at the Presidential Inn (PI), in Southgate, from 3 to 7 p.m. Take I-75 to the Northline-Allen Road exit to reach the inn.

Backing him up will be the World's Straightest Jazz band, featuring Tommy Saunders on the cornet, Earl Stuart on the clarinet-sax, Jim Martin on the trombone, Clarence Isabell on the bass and Danny Masouris on the drums.

Admission is $4 per person, but members of the Detroit Hot Jazz Society will pay $3.

Bobby Hirsch is a 2-fisted piano player who conveys to his listeners his obvious admiration for Fats Waller, James P. Johnson and Ralph Sutton.

A resident of LaCrosse, Wis., where he heads up his own jazzband, Hirsch has worked with such jazz greats as Eddie Condon, Wild Bill Davison, Bob Wilber, Doc Evans, Cliff Leeman Barrett Deems and Max Kaminsky, to name a few.

Hirsch studied with Sutton on a National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship grant, and after it was all over, Sutton had nothing but praise for Hirsch's playing.

With Hirsch's appearance at the PI, it'll be a homecoming of sorts for the pianist and Tommy Saunders both of whom have appeared together many times at various jazz festivals throughout the country, including backing up such artists as Bobby Hackett, Maxine Sullivan and George Brunis.

birds, the exhibit was the result of an interest sparked by a bird feeder that the students at the Detroit Day School constructed for Kathy's invalid father, Thomas E. Kornacki, M.D. Kathy and her father watched the birds as they continuously swarmed around the backyard feeder. Under the guidance of Patricia A. DeWalt, school science teacher, the interest led to formulation of the award-winning project.

"Birds in Detroit," was one of 12 exhibits chosen from the 1975 Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair by the Detroit Science Center for originality in communicating science ideas.

The Detroit Science Center, featuring 45 participational science exhibits, is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 12 to 5 p.m. Sunday. There is no admission charge.

Romulus students gain first ratings

Two students from Romulus Senior High School have received a "first division" rating for their performances on instruments during the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association Solo and Ensemble State Festival in Saline.

They are Linda McDonald, a flutist, and Andy Orgovan, a tuba player.

The two were among seven students from Romulus Senior High who earned a spot in the state competition by earning first division (excellent) ratings at district competition, either with solo performances or as part of an ensemble. The district competition, sponsored by the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association was held at Henry Ford Community College, Jan. 31.

The other students entered in the state competition performed in duets on various instruments. Each duet performance received a second-division (very good) rating from the judges.

Winning honors in their duet performances were Sherry Henderson and Jill Rusan on the flute, Miss McDonald and Bridget Forintos on the flute and Loretta Vickerman and Carrol Schneider on the clarinet.

According to Ralph Miller, band director at the high school, the Romulus students in the competition performed better than most entered because of their study.

"It is interesting to note that only one of our seven students study privately on their instrument, whereas a majority of those who participate in the solo and ensemble festivals study privately with music teachers," Miller said. "Also many of those students competing in state competition have had previous solo and ensemble festival participation in their junior high schools."

"Romulus South Junior High School does not participate in the solo and ensemble festivals."

"Considering the above factors, I am exceptionally proud of these seven students for their respectable ratings."

Previously, full bands and orchestras from the Romulus Community School District at both the senior and junior high school levels received high marks in regional band competition sponsored by the Michigan School Band and Orchestra competition held in the Wayne County area.

Course will open

The 18-hole "Par 3" golf course at Lower Huron Metropark near Belleville is expected to open this month.

Fees are $2 Monday through Friday and $2.50 Saturday, Sunday and holidays.

Equipment rental is available. Persons may use their own golf balls or purchase them from the park. Course hours are 8 a.m. to dusk, with extended hours later in the season.

For additional information, call 697-9181.

The average playing time for a foursome is 1½ hours. A putting green is adjacent to the course for practice.

Ex-Romulus resident completes training

A former Romulus resident has graduated from a technical training course for the U.S. Air Force electronic repairmen.

He is Airman 1.c. Daniel L. Trump, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Trump of 35590 Ronald St., Romulus.

The airman was trained to install and repair special airborne and ground electronics equipment at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss.

A 1975 graduate of Romulus High School, Airman Trump will be assigned to a permanent duty station at Gila Bend Air Force Auxiliary at Field, Ariz.

Also in the armed forces:

Army Sgt. Gerardo A. Castro, 25, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andre S. Castro, 9915 Hamilton, Belleville, has been assigned to the 197th Infantry Brigade at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Sgt. Castro, a squad leader in Company B, 3rd Battalion of the brigade's 7th Infantry, entered the Army in 1970 and was last stationed in Italy. He served in Vietnam and holds the Vietnamese Gallantry Cross.

Air National Guard Senior M.Sgt. LeRoy H. Bassett, the son of Mrs. Kirk Bassett of 29037 Northline Road, Romulus, has graduated from the U.S. Air Force Senior Non-Commissioned Officer Academy at Gunter Air Force Station, Ala.

Sgt. Bassett studied advanced management techniques, communicative skills and behavioral science during the 9-week course.

The 1950 graduate of Romulus High School will be reassigned to the Selfridge Air National Guard Base where he is a nuclear weapons superintendent with the 191st Fighter Interceptor Group.

A Carleton man has graduated at the Sheppard Air Force Base, Tex., from the Air Force heating systems specialists course conducted by the Air Training Command. He is Airman Michael D. Goetz, the son of Mrs. Patsy A. O'Nan of 730 Monroe St., Carleton.

M.SGT. LeROY H. BASSETT

Airman Goetz is a 1975 graduate of Airport High School who is being assigned to Robins Air Force Base, Ga., to work with a unit of the Air Force Communication Service.

Military Expert

Capt. James Rayner was squired around Belleville High School by student guide Vickie Steffen during a recent Career Day, sponsored by the school's administrators. The captain, an admission counselor for the Michigan State University Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) program, discussed military careers with students at the high school.

They'll put feet to test in 'walk'

Residents interested in helping the Detroit Chapter of the March of Dimes can put their best foot forward in the charity's sixth annual Superwalk, slated for April 25 on Belle Isle.

The walk will kick off at 8 p.m. at the Belle Isle Casino.

Sponsors are being sought to pledge a certain amount for each mile of the 20-mile course the walkers cover. Pre-registration is required to obtain sponsor forms. Interested walkers can register by calling 864-6000.

The walkers must solicit their own sponsors, then show their validated forms for the number of miles walked to collect the funds for the March of Dimes. They must send the money on to the organization. The walk forms are validated every two miles of the course completed.

There is no age limit on participants, however, youngsters under 12 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.

All walkers are being encouraged to walk with a friend, wear comfortable socks and shoes, dress for the weather and bring enough money for their immediate needs.

In previous years, money collected from the Superwalk has been used to furnish infant intensive care units in local hospitals, provide research and medical programs both locally and nationally, purchase equipment for local schools and camps for the handicapped and provide a nutritionist for a prenatal care program.

Chamber plans area 200th map

Work has begun on the Belleville area. Chamber of Commerce Bicentennial map.

This year's version of the map, which will cover the city of Belleville in addition to the townships of Van Buren, Sumpter and Canton, will feature ads from area businesses.

Mercedes Horner will be representing the chamber in the ad solicitation.

Plans are to not only show routes through the area on the map, but also to pinpoint areas of general interest, including the various governmental buildings and schools.

Mrs. Horner is making plans to call on every business in the community to solicit an ad for the map.

Should a business want to be included in the project, or desire further information on it, the information can be obtained by calling either the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce at 697-7151 between the hours of 12 and 3 p.m., or Mrs. Horner at 697-9812 after 4 p.m.

"Lay down your arms...and disperse."

The date: April 19, 1775. The time: 5:00 A.M. At this moment the American Revolution began.

During the long night before, Captain John Parker had assembled his force of 77 Minutemen on Lexington Green. Their arms were whatever guns and pistols they had in their homes. Their uniforms were the rustic clothes of the farmer or tradesman. The odds against them were 10 to 1.

Now, in the chill dawn, Parker and his men watched grimly as the first disciplined ranks of a force of 700 Redcoats advanced onto the green and formed a battle line. Parker realized the hopeless odds, swiftly turned and ordered his men to disperse.

Suddenly the silence was split by a single shot. Instantly a volley roared from the British ranks. The War of the Revolution had begun. Another volley and the Redcoats charged. Ranks of bayonets gleamed like steel pickets in the early light. In a whine of musket balls, the patriots scattered, leaving eight of their number dead and ten wounded.

The British had no casualties, but their gloating was short-lived. By noon, Parker and his men were firing at a British army in panic-stricken retreat.

Today, the statue marking the battleground in Lexington, Massachusetts is a memorial to Captain John Parker and his small force of patriots. This commanding bronze figure stands as an inspiring symbol of America's hard-won heritage of freedom, and is the modern symbol of Sentry Insurance.

Barr sets posts

The two Wayne County commissioners, whose districts include Romulus, Van Buren, Huron and Sumpter townships and Belleville, have been appointed to vice-chairman posts on two committees of the county's legislative unit.

The appointments, made by Chairman John Barr, place Commissioner Royce Smith (D-27th District) as the vice-chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and Commissioner Edgar Harris (D-26th District) as the vice-chairman of the Public Works Committee a position he held last year.

Also serving on the public works panel will be Smith.

"In making these appointments, I have considered the special interests and abilities of individual commissioners," said Barr.

Ford becomes involved in postal 'mess'

Quizzes officials on Detroit backlog

Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) has become involved in the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee investigation into the handling of packages at the Detroit Post Office.

Ford quizzed two high-ranking postal officials recently during a committee hearing in Washington to determine why thousands of damaged parcels lie in a large area of the Detroit Post Office without being delivered.

The congressman sought who was responsible for a set-up at the Detroit post office in its bulk mailing center which mangled packages during processing.

At one point, Ford said: "The Postal Service finally has discovered a way to destroy the contents of a package without damaging the wrapper."

The congressman couldn't resist putting a jab at postal officials because of his feelings about a $1 billion "National Bulk Mail System" set-up, which he opposed when it was first proposed by former Postmaster General William Blount during the Nixon Administration.

The congressman was most critical of the system because it reportedly has resulted in consistent damage to packages since its inception.

Presently, there are 3.7 million damaged packages at the Chicago Regional Post Office awaiting claims.

Ford added that the mail volume in the bulk mail system actually has decreased from 967 million packages in 1971 to 801 million during the past year.

Ford likened the discovery of the problems with the bulk mailing system to the campaign for an anti-ballistic missile system which later was found to be useless.

"The postal service is displaying the same kind of mentality as President Nixon and others who for years demanded that Congress authorize a multi-billion dollar, anti-ballistic missile system, which it refused and which later was learned to have been unnecessary."

Wagon send-off planned

Residents from the area will be gathering April 30 to honor a Van Buren Township resident who will be one of the teamsters driving a wagon in the national Bicentennial wagon caravan.

All area residents are invited to attend the send-off for George Miller, who will be driving Michigan's entry in the national Bicentennial caravan to Valley Forge, Pa., starting May 4.

The send-off party is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. April 30 at the Romulus Progressive Club Hall on Ozga Road in Romulus.

Admission to the dinner and dance will be $10 per person and will be available from any area Bicentennial Commission member.

The bill of fare for the dinner will be a complete Bicentennial meal, and entertainment, following the meal, will be provided by David Williams.

Proceeds from the events will help finance area Bicentennial activities.

Local expert

Dr. Richard Muse, an optometrist, and a member of the Van Buren Board of Education was one of hundreds of professionals who discussed careers with students at Belleville High School during a recent Career Day presentation. The program was designed to open the eyes of students to the careers available to them in return for their studies in high school.

Belleville chamber holds annual meet

The Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce will be holding its annual membership meeting at 7 p.m. May 1 in the Lemontree Clubhouse on Denton Road in Van Buren Township.

Cost of the evening, which will feature dinner, and dancing to the music of Sagittarius, will be $15 per person.

Tickets can be obtained by calling the chamber office at 697-7151 between 12 and 3 p.m. weekdays.

Part of the annual meeting will feature an announcement of the selection of new officers for the year and the introduction of the new Board of Directors during the next year.

New board members are John Barber of John Barber Inc., Jerald Krause of the Lakewood Center Branch of the National Bank of Detroit, Robert Parent of Sun and Snow Sports Inc., and Karen Shumate of the Lemontree Apartments.

Chamber heads set

The Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce has selected four new members to its Board of Directors.

Serving 3-year terms on the board will be John Barber, Jerald Krause, Robert Parent and Karen Shumate.

The four were selected from a field of eight nominees for the vacant seats on the chamber's Board of Directors.

Barber is owner of John Barber Inc. of Belleville. Krause is branch manager of the National Bank of Detroit Lakewood Center office. Parent is owner of Sun and Snow Sports, Inc., of Belleville, and Miss Shumate is resident manager at the Lemontree Apartments in Van Buren Township.

Resolution 76-280

WHEREAS: The City of Romulus (Herein called the "Local Issuing Agency") has entered into one or more contracts (which, together with any supplements thereto or amendments or waivers of any provisions thereof, are herein called the "Contract") with the United States of America (herein called the "Government") providing for a loan by the Government to the Local Issuing Agency for financing the urban renewal, low-rent housing or redevelopment project(s) described in the Contract and herein called the "Project"; and

WHEREAS: Pursuant to advertisement for the receipt of proposals for the purchase of the Third Series 1976 of Project Notes (herein sometimes called "New Project Notes") of the Local Issuing Agency aggregating $1,618,000, which appeared in a Notice of Sale published on March 3, 1976, in the Romulus Roman in the City of Romulus, Michigan and in the Daily Bond Buyer in The City of New York, New York, proposals for the purchase of the New Project Notes in the form approved by the Local Issuing Agency were received, opened, and canvassed at the time and place mentioned in said advertisement, to wit; at Office of City Clerk, 11111 Wayne Road in the City of Romulus, Michigan 48174 at One O'Clock P.M. E.S.T. on March 16, 1976, which proposals are as follows:

NAME OF BIDDER	INTEREST RATE	PRINCIPAL AMOUNT	PREMIUM

First National City Bank	2.83	1,618,000	20.00
The Chase Manhattan Bank, N.A.	2.7	1,618,000	20.00

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: By the Local Issuing Agency as follows: Section 1. The aforesaid publication of the Notice of Sale and the form and contents thereof as so published are hereby, in all respects, approved, ratified and confirmed.

Section 2. In order to provide funds to pay expenses incurred or to be incurred in the Development of the Project, or to refund, renew or extend its outstanding Notes issued in connection therewith, the Local Issuing Agency hereby determines to borrow the sum of One Million Six Hundred Eighteen Thousand Dollars ($1,618,000) and issue its negotiable Project Notes therefor.

Section 3. The Local Issuing Agency hereby ratifies and approves the form of each proposal hereinafter in this Section 3 enumerated for the purchase of the designated principal amount of Notes and determines that each such proposal offers to purchase such Notes at the lowest interest rate and is therefore accepted, and said Notes are hereby awarded to the purchaser, as follows:

Principal Amount	Interest Rate	Purchaser
$1,618,000	2.69 percent	Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association San Francisco, California with Bankers Trust Company New York, New York; Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago Chicago, Illinois; and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, Inc. New York, New York

Section 4. Each Note shall be dated April 13, 1976, shall be payable as to both principal and interest to bearer, on July 23, 1976, and pursuant to each proposal for the purchase of said Notes hereinabove accepted shall bear the rate of interest per annum, payable as to both principal and interest at the incorporated bank having trust powers or incorporated trust company, as follows:

Purchaser	Numbers	Denominations	Interest Rate	Payable At
Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association	1-7	$100,000	2.69 percent	Bankers Trust Company
San Francisco, California	8-16	50,000		New York, N.Y.
with	17-30	25,000
Bankers Trust Company	31-37	10,000
New York, New York;	38-46
Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust of Chicago, Chic., Illinois; and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, Inc., New York, New York.	47-49

None of such Notes shall be valid until after the bank or trust company at which it is payable shall have signed the agreement, appearing on each Note, to act as paying agent thereof. Each such Note shall be executed in the name of the Local Issuing Agency by the manual or facsimile signature of the Mayor and City Clerk of the Local Issuing Agency and shall have the corporate seal of the Local Issuing Agency impressed, imprinted or reproduced thereon and attested by the City Clerk, and said officers are hereby authorized and directed to cause said Notes to be properly executed.

Section 5. Each such Note shall be in substantially the form of HUD-9010, which is incorporated herein by reference, and shall be secured by an agreement entitled "Requisition Agreement No. 3-1976" (herein called the "Requisition Agreement"), in substantially the form of HUD-9003, which is incorporated herein by reference, to be entered into between the Local Issuing Agency and the Government.

Section 6. The Requisition Agreement shall be executed in the name of the Local Issuing Agency by the manual or facsimile signature of the Mayor of the Local Issuing Agency and shall have the corporate seal of the local Issuing Agency impressed, imprinted or reproduced thereon and attested by the City Clerk, and said officers are hereby authorized and directed to cause the Requisition Agreement to be properly executed.

Section 7. For the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on the New Project Notes, the Local Issuing Agency hereby expressly and irrevocably promises to pay any sums which may be received from the Government pursuant to the Requisition Agreement relating to such series of Project Notes and said Agreement, when executed by the Government, is hereby declared to be and is hereby assigned by the Local Issuing Agency for the benefit of the holder or holders from time to time of the New Project Notes. All contributions, funds and amounts authorized or required by the Contract to be applied to the payment of Project Loan Notes (referred to in the Contract as "Project Temporary Loan Obligations"), "Advance Notes" or "Permanent Notes") as issued in connection with the Project are hereby irrevocably pledged to secure the payment of the principal of and interest to maturity on the New Project Notes.

Such pledge and the lien created thereby shall cease and terminate when monies or investment securities convertible into cash not later than the maturity date of the New Project Notes, sufficient and for the purpose of paying the principal and interest to maturity on such Notes, are deposited with the paying agent or agents for such Notes.

Section 8. The proceeds derived from the sale of the New Project Notes, together with such amount of other funds of the Local Issuing Agency as may be necessary, shall be applied, simultaneously with the receipt of said proceeds, in accordance with the provisions of the Requisition Agreement.

Section 9. The City Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to send promptly a letter to each paying agent for the New Project Notes in substantially the form of HUD-9004, which is incorporated herein by reference, and to transmit therewith (a) the New Project Notes for which the addressee is the paying agent for delivery and payment and (b) a signature certificate and receipt, in accordance with the terms of said letter, and to take such other actions as may be required to complete the delivery transaction in accordance with the terms of the letter to the paying agent.

Section 10. This Resolution shall take effect immediately. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Oakley, Raspberry, Martin, Lee, McAnally, Block, Canejo. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

10C. Motion by Oakley, supported by Martin, that the Council direct the City Attorney to research Senate Bill No. 604 to amend Act No. 232, P.A. 1971, to allow all local units of government to impose and collect an excise tax on persons engaged in providing transient accommodations, and to present his recommendation to the City Council. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Raspberry, Oakley, Martin, McAnally, Lee, Block, Canejo. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

76-294

10D. Motion by McAnally, supported by Lee, to adopt Resolution No. 76-294 in support of Senate Bill No. 1323, a bill to amend Section 685 of Act No. 116 of Public Acts of 1954 entitled "Michigan Election Law," defining access to ballots.

Resolution 76-294

WHEREAS: Senator Patrick McCollough has introduced Senate Bill No. 1323, a bill to amend Section 685 of Act No. 116 of Public Acts of 1954 entitled "Michigan Election Law," and

WHEREAS: It is the intent of the Legislature to limit the size of General Election ballots to the extent that they may be comprehensible to the electorate at large, and

WHEREAS: Approximately 80 percent of the State of Michigan vote on machines which cannot handle more than nine (9) parties, which would require the state to use paper ballots in the November General Election if more than nine (9) parties were to qualify, and

WHEREAS: The use of paper ballots would cause a multitude of complications and difficulties to include, but certainly not be limited to, long delays at the voting precinct, causing walkouts of prospective voters due to frustration created by the wait, an absolute inability to project and-or predict when election returns might be tabulated and the results published, a frightening vulnerability to error, primarily because of the unfamiliarity of poll workers with the paper ballot process, not to begin to attempt to comprehend the horrendous financial hardship which would be imposed on all municipalities subjected to this ballot process because of:

1. The physical requirements imposed by the paper ballot process and
2. The indirect financial imposition placed because of the foregoing outlined difficulties.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the City Council of the City of Romulus does herewith set forth its enthusiastic support of Senate Bill 1323.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That copies of this Resolution be forwarded to Governor William Milliken, Senator William Faust, Senator McCollough, Representative Edward Mahalak, Representative Gary Owen, Representative Alfred Sheridan, Secretary of State Richard Austin. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Martin, Oakley, Raspberry, McAnally, Lee, Block, Canejo. Nays - None. Motion carried unanimously.

76-295

11A. Motion by McAnally, supported by Lee, that the City Council table approval of City Warrant No. 192. Roll call vote showing: Ayes - Raspberry, Martin, Lee, McAnally, Canejo. Nays - Oakley, Block. Motion carried.

76-296

May cause salmonella poisoning

Fuzzy chicks, ducks could be deadly

Live baby chicks and ducklings, given to youngsters as Easter pets, may be soft and fuzzy, but they could be the source of the deadly salmonella poisoning.

With the Easter holidays around the corner, the warning about the pets was issued by ARK, Humane Education Service, located in the City of Warren.

National humane organization spokesmen say the incidence of salmonellosis annually rises in the week after Easter, which will be observed this Sunday.

The symptoms are diarrhea, fever, cramps and vomiting for three to five days. ARK, however, equally is as concerned about the cruelty to animals, according to Linda Shaffer, media director for ARK. "Each year, chicks, ducks and rabbits are dyed colors which is an inhumane practice. This teaches children to be unkind to animals," she said.

The Humane Society of the United States estimates that 90 percent of the pets die within one week after Easter from cruel handling, inadequate care and feeding and abandonment.

"Children often squeeze and hug the life right out of baby animals, unaware that animals feel pain much as humans do," Miss Shaffer added. "The animals often are the subject of tug-of-war skirmishes between children, or are dropped and die of internal injuries."

Rabbits are turned loose in the woods and do not have parent animals to teach them how to forage for food and protect themselves. Some domestic rabbits are white and easily are spotted and killed by predators, she said.

"Stores are filled with toy stuffed animals that do not transmit disease, do not suffer and die from internal injuries, do not have to be abandoned in shelters, and do not die in the wild," Miss Shaffer continued. "These are the kind children should have for a safe and happy Easter season."

South JHS concert a success

More than 400 residents and students attended the annual Belleville South Junior High School mid-winter concert recently.

Performed by both the Belleville South Marching Band and South Jazz Band were such tunes as "The Sounds of Sousa" and songs from the musical "The Sound of Music."

Performed by the Jazz Band during the March 11 concert were songs "The Way We Were," "Can't Take My Eyes Off You," "Joy to the World," "Ode to Sister Sue" and "Mood Indigo."

The Marching Band performed such numbers as "Another Opening, Another Show," "Hey, Look Me Over," "Give My Regards to Broadway," "Mickey Mouse March," "Mr. USA" and "Victors," the school song.

Frank Soloc, director of bands at the school said he was pleased with the performance.

In addition to performances by the Police career

Michigan State Trooper Bob Brandt, a resident of Van Buren Township, was one of hundreds of volunteers from various careers who spoke to students at Belleville High School during a recent Career Day. School officials say the "day" was established to give students at the school an idea of the direction their studies should take.

For foreign automobiles

Bill would require insurance

Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) has co-sponsored legislation requiring liability insurance for automobiles brought into the United States by tourists, diplomats and other foreign visitors, entering the country for extended periods.

"The United States is the only major country in the world that does not require liability insurance as a prerequisite for bringing automobiles into the country for personal use," Congressman Ford said. "Under current law, the Customs Service is not required to check incoming autos to determine whether they carry insurance, even though foreigners are allowed, by treaty, to drive for up to a year with foreign license tags.

"There is an obvious need to protect Americans against possible damage, both physical and property, by automobiles being driven without proper insurance coverage."

The U.S. Customs Service reported that 76,000,000 foreign vehicles were cleared to enter the United States last year. Many of these were repeat visits from commuters and frequent visitors from Canada and Mexico, but many were driven here for extended periods.

"At the present time, we have no way of knowing how many of these cars were covered by adequate liability insurance," Ford noted. "It is likely that most of them are, but it equally is likely that many of them are not. The danger to our citizens is apparent."

The legislation proposed by Congressman Ford and a number of colleagues would require the Customs Service to register every personal auto brought into the United States for 30 days or more. The driver would have to provide his or her name, address, passport number, the state in which the vehicle will be used principally and proof of liability insurance.

"Similar regulations are enforced by Canada and Mexico, by all the western European nations, and by the Soviet Union and other Eastern bloc nations," Congressman Ford said. "American citizens are entitled to the same protection."

Student volunteer

Cathy Petrasky, a former student of Belleville High School, spoke during a recent Career Day at her alma mater. Miss Petrasky discussed her studies in the area of veterinary medicine for her high school-aged peers during the Career Day. Miss Petrasky currently is studying for her degree at Michigan State University.

League set for tryouts

Tryouts for the Romulus South Little League are scheduled to start at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Romulus South Junior High School.

It was incorrectly reported in last week's Romulus Roman that the tryouts were scheduled to be held at the Romulus North Junior High.

The Roman apologizes for any inconvenience the error may have caused.

Scheduled for this week are tryouts for 11-12-year-old ball players who wish to perform in the Little League.

The Romulus South Little League sponsors a baseball program for youths living south of the I-94 freeway.

Seminar set on disasters

Area registered and licensed practical nurses are urged to take part in a May 3 seminar at the Dearborn Red Cross Regional Office on disaster relief in their communities.

Scheduled from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and from 4:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., the seminar and conference will be designed to explain to nurses how they can use their professional skills for specialized requirements needed to care for regional, or national, emergencies.

TAKE NOTE!

The Wayne Civitans and Amvets are sponsoring an Easter Egg Hunt Sunday at 2 p.m. at Attwood Park in Wayne, located on Howe Road near Annapolis, next to the Wayne Community Center. All Wayne children of elementary school age are invited free of charge to come and hunt up more than 2,000 decorated eggs that will be hidden on the grounds. Also, appearing in person will be the Easter Bunny himself, flown in by helicopter for the event. Parents are asked to park behind Franklin Junior High and the Wayne Community Center to avoid traffic congestion.

Narcs discuss drug abuse at meeting

program, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. April 26 at the St. Aloysius Parish school hall in Romulus.

Benefit ready

The Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club will be holding a rummage sale between 9 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. April 24.

To be held at the Belleville Masonic Temple, 515 Main St., Belleville, the sale will help finance club community improvement activities during the next year.

The three squad members will discuss drugs after St. Aloysius Parish education chairman Ronald J. Hackett wrote Wayne County Sheriff William Lucas for information on such problems in Wayne County.

The program, to be held at 37200 Neville St., Romulus, will feature information on drug identification, physical and mental effects caused by drugs and what parents can do to protect their children from drug abuse.

All area residents are invited to attend the free presentation.

The program is co-sponsored by the St. Aloysius Education Commission and the Parent-Teacher guild of the parish.

Student finishes teaching

A Romulus woman has completed her student teaching assignment at Madonna College.

She is Debra Dick, who is teaching in a learning disabilities program for the Dearborn School District, as part of her student teaching program.

Miss Dick, whose major is in the Department of Education, worked in a classroom at the DuVall Elementary School in Dearborn, under the supervision of Constance George.

Warming up

Wayne Memorial's All-Area netter Kari Walker (above) gets into shape for his senior campaign which should be an excellent one for Walker and Coach Jack Armstrong's Zebras. Wayne, stocked with seasoned players, began the 1976 Great Lakes 8 Conference campaign on Monday, clashing with Monroe. Tomorrow, Wayne is at home to Taylor Center, another league confrontation.

Tiger tracksters tripped in debut

Edsel Ford cashed in on a couple of Belleville disqualifications to spoil Dave Medley's debut as head Tiger track coach last week.

The Dearbornites won a close 72-60 opening Suburban N. Conference track decision.

However, Medley, a former Belleville High track star, was pleased with his team's over-all performance.

"We looked pretty good," said

Medley who was a member of the All-Area track team in the late sixties. "If it weren't for the disqualifications in the discus and a dropped baton in the 880-yard relay, we would have been in pretty good shape."

Belleville will return to league competition today 4 p.m. at Allen Park.

Against Edsel Ford, the Tiger tracksters whipped up seven first places. Mike Blazer accounted for two of those as he covered the 120-yard high hurdles in a respectable 15.4, then came back to place first in the 180-yard low hurdles in 20.2.

Meet results: Edsel Ford 72, Belleville 60

District playoffs

Belleville to host area baseball teams

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

The precarious road to the coveted Class A state championship will begin at Belleville and Dearborn for most area high school teams.

The Michigan High School Athletic Association this week announced district baseball tournament assignments and the two schools - Belleville and Dearborn - will host many of the local contingents.

Belleville's lineup includes Wayne Memorial, Westland John Glenn, Romulus and Livonia Churchill from the area along with Adrian, Ann Arbor Huron, Pioneer, Monroe, Temperance Bedford and Ypsilanti. The host also is grouped in this pack.

Meanwhile, Dearborn High will entertain Plymouth Salem, Plymouth Canton, Livonia Franklin, along with Dearborn, Edsel Ford, Fordson, Annapolis, Crestwood, Thurston, Garden City East, Garden City West and Livonia Bentley.

In Class B competition, Ypsilanti Willow Run was named as host for the following schools: Dearborn Divine West, Riverside, Robichaud, Lutheran Child, Cherry Hill, Inkster, Clarenceville, New Boston Huron, and Ypsilanti Lincoln.

The MHSAA also announced that four tournament managerial meetings will be held for the purpose of reviewing procedures and general tournament operations.

One of the meetings will be held April 22 at 2 p.m. at Dearborn High School. The meeting will be held in the Choir Room and Jack Johnson, athletic director, is the host.

The annual High School Baseball Clinic, sponsored by the Detroit Baseball Company and the Michigan

Wayne, Glenn '9s' split

Bill Crews' 3-run home run off of losing pitcher Wayne Hodgkins paved the way for Don Johnson's opening day pitching victory.

Johnson, getting the support of nine hits from his teammates, struck out seven, walked three in tossing a three-hitter. Hodgkins went the first four innings for Glenn, gave up six runs, struck out three and walked three before yielding the mound to Terry Butler who finished up.

In the nightcap, Glenn came back to edge their visitors 6-5.

Wayne tied the game up in the top of the seventh, scoring two runs, however, the Westlanders sealed their first win in three starts thanks to a single by Mark Grabowski, a sacrifice by Larry Schroeder and a pinch-hit single by Craig Walker who drove home Grabowski with the tying run.

Then, Kevin Sanders got to Wayne reliever Pat Bledsoe for a single, scoring Walker with the winning run.

Hodgkins, in relief of Craig Duncan, was the winning pitcher while Bledsoe, who took over from starter Jim Canfield, was tagged with the loss. Canfield hurled 6 and one-third innings and gave up three of the six hits.

counting two of the five Wayne RBI's, while Sheridan collected a run-scoring triple.

Glenn lost its opener 5-4 to Garden City West earlier in the week as Jeff Ludwig was rapped for five hits in taking the loss. Terry Butler started and worked the first four innings before Ludwig was summoned to the mound.

Glenn took a 4-2 lead in the third inning when Eric Borswold singled, moved to second on Todd Deluca's single. Schroeder was safe on an error, scoring the Rockets' first run and Grabowski hit into a fielder's choice, bringing up Brett Mc-

High school players, coaches and umpires who are in attendance at the clinic will be the guests of the Detroit Baseball Company at the Detroit-White Sox game scheduled to be played at 2:15 p.m.

The clinic will include Tiger baseball squad players providing tips on catching, pitching, base running and playing of infield positions under the direction of Tiger Manager Ralph Houk.

Clelland who belted a two-run single. McClelland advanced to second on a pass ball and scored when Snyder singled.

West however rallied for three runs in the top of the sixth to spoil Coach Norm Hoenes' and the Rockets' opener.

Hoenes feels, though, his team will be improved this season.

"We have three decent pitchers in Duncan, Ludwig and Hodgkins but, to win the conference title, we'll have to stop Garden City East, the defending champ. We definitely will be an improved ball club."

Wolverines claim 3 gold mat medals

Ten of the 19-Wayne-Westland Wolverine wrestlers returned from the gruelling state finals of the Michigan Wrestling Alliance Tournament with medals - three of those were gold.

The Wolverines captured a first place in the 8-and-under, 52-pound class thanks to the efforts of Victor Golden who was a finalist in last year's world tournament.

Wayne's Keith Zimmerman also placed first in the heavyweight category of the 11-12 year olds while teammate Joe Justin emerged from the mats with the gold medal at 105

Other medalists included John Novick, who placed third at 85 pounds for 9-10 year olds; second place for 11-12 year olds are Robb Paciocco (80) and Mike Novick (126) while Mike Thomas and Mark Alter were runners-up at 100 and 158 pounds for 13 and 14 year olds.

Third place medals went to Jeff Rose (112) and Matt Paciocco (140) for 12 and 14 year old wrestlers.

The Wolverines are coached by Sam Adams, Steve Fugabon, Bill Carlson and Al Paciocco.

Westland John Glenn's girls track team quickly established itself as one of the finest in the area with a one-sided 77-37 victory over area rival, Garden City West.

Simons drafted by Chiefs

Belleville star joins pro grid ranks

Sports Editor

Though he wasn't picked an all-stater while in high school, Keith

Simons, former Belleville High and the University of Minnesota football great, proved he has the making of a professional football player.

And the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football Conference spotted that talent and picked Simons, a sturdy 6-foot-4, 245-pound defensive tackle as their first choice in the third round of the professional football draft held last week.

Simons, Minnesota's captain for the past two seasons, and voted Defensive Player of the Midwest for his superb performance against Iowa last year, becomes the second player in Belleville High history to join the professional football ranks.

WAYNE SPARKMAN

Salem's Sparkman resigns

An All-Area griddier as a member of Coach Keith Emerson's teams at Belleville in the early '70's, Simons never received the recognition he deserved within his state. Minnesota, however, grabbed him and offered him a "full-ride scholarship."

As a member of the Golphers, Simons never missed a game during his collegiate career.

"Probably one of his biggest assets," said Harry Hidenfelter, Belleville High athletic director "is Keith's durability. He didn't miss a game in college and that has to be some kind of record."

Wayne Sparkman, who coached Plymouth Salem to the Class A state baseball title and the Suburban 8 Conference championship won't be back with the Rocks this season.

Sparkman resigned as head coach, stating "that personal reasons and frustrations involving the building of a successful baseball program at Salem" as causes for his unexpected resignation.

Sparkman, 34, has coached the Rocks for the past six years. His 21-7 won-lost record was his and the school's best.

"I also have been spending too much time away from my family," said Sparkman. "And, adding everything up, I felt it was time to step down."

Sparkman is a counselor at Salem High. His teams have never finished below fourth in the Suburban 8 Conference and his Connie Mack teams have won the league title the past four years.

Wayne and his wife, Roxana, have two children, Melissa, 6, and Michelle, 4. They live in Plymouth.

Glenn's 2-mile relay team finishes 5th at Mansfield

Westland John Glenn had the fifth best 2-mile relay team at the prestigious Mansfield, Ohio Relays. And that means that Coach Barry Basel's Rockets have the distance team to beat in the area.

"We look pretty good," said Basel as he prepares his team to defend the Northwest Suburban Conference track and field title. "However, injuries are hurting us."

Basel's lineup for the 2-mile relay at Mansfield included Ten Unold, Kelly Frost, Dave Johnson and Jeff Couturier who were clocked in 8:14.2.

Glenn swept all 16 events to stun a rebuilding Romulus track contingent 119-13 in their first dual meet of the season. The loss ruined Al Wilkerson's debut as Romulus' head coach.

Glenn's Terry Bixler leaped 19 feet, 13 inches to capture the long jump and he also ran a 10.4 for the 100-yard dash to account for two first places.

Ted Unold, an All-Area cross country selection last fall, turned in a respectable 10:08.2 for the 2-mile run for the Westlanders.

Cherry Hill '9' bows '2' nonleague rivals

With two games under their belts, Cherry Hill and rookie coach Ken Mientkiewicz qill open up the 1976 Tri-River Conference baseball tomorrow against Riverside.

Mientkiewicz Spartans lost their opener to Northwest Suburban Conference defending champ and pre-season title favorite Garden City East 9-0 and were edged 4-2 by Fordson in their two nonleague contests.

However Mientkiewicz sees improvement in his young club.

"We ran up against a good thrower at East which is rare so early in the season," Mientkiewicz said. "But we got a hold of the ball against Fordson and looked pretty decent."

East which returns two of the better pitchers in the area in Greg Emery and Jim Hudson, threw Hudson against the Spartans and Hudson turned in a two-hitter, struck out 15 and walked three in posting a 9-0 victory.

Baseball tryouts continue

Little League baseball and softball tryouts will continue for the Belleville-Van Buren Little League on Saturday, April 17 and April 24 from 10 a.m. to noon at Belleville High.

Players who are nine-years-old and over that have not tried out must attend one of the tryouts. Eight year olds baseball players will automatically be assigned to a farm team and need not attend the tryouts.

Every player expecting to play must have an official registration form filled out and in the possession of the little league by April 24.

For those who didn't register at school forms will be available at the tryouts. Questions regarding baseball should be directed Mike Annis (699-9476). Questions regarding softball call Hardy at 697-8687.

Chuck Sosnowski was charged with the 4-2 loss to Fordson. He worked the first four innings, gave up three runs, struck out four and walked one. He was tagged for five hits before leaving the mound.

Cherry Hill reliever Mark Lipinski finished up, twirling the final three innings.

Cherry Hill drew blood first, scoring a run in the second on a double by Tim Rollins and a run-scoring single by designated hitter Jim Dubiel.

The Tractors, though, erased the deficit with a two-run third, then added single runs in the fourth and fifth innings.

Dubiel and Bryan Funke split four of the Spartan seven hits.

MVP tanker

Mark Blanchard, a member of the elite All-Area swim club, and a freshman at Western Michigan University, was voted the "most valuable" performer for the 1975-76 WMU squad.

Blanchard set school records in the 500-yard freestyle with a time of 4:51.88, the 1,000 freestyle with a 10:12.30 effort, and in the 1,650 freestyle with a 17:01.60.

Cherry Hill runners start season fast

Sweeping an unprecedented 16 events, Cherry Hill opened up the 1976 dual meet track season by crushing Warren Lincoln, 111-21 last week.

It was the first time in the school's history that the track team had claimed all of the first places in a dual meet, according to Coach Joe Grasley.

"I was impressed with some of the performances, particularly those of Guyton (Clarence) in the high hurdles and Centkowski (Paul) and Bisesi (Dave) in the long jump and the relays, in general," said Grasley.

Cherry Hill will begin the defense of its Tri-River Conference title tomorrow against Riverside, a team that looked unimpressive in its opening day loss to Taylor Truman.

The Spartans will host the 4 p.m. meet.

Against Warren Lincoln, Bill Coughenour and Guyton each accounted for two wins. Coughenour won the discus — the newest event on the prep schedule — with a toss of 118 feet, 11 inches, and he also picked up a first in the shot put with a heave of 44 feet, 3 inches.

Guyton was clocked in 15.2 for the high and 22.3 for the low hurdles.

ROGER FRAYER

Parkers, Churchill split two

Coach Rog Frayer unveiled his 1976 Livonia Churchill baseball machine against Highland Park and it didn't take long for the Charger skipper to realize that there "is still a lot a work ahead of us."

The Livonians split with their nonleague rivals, winning the first in extra innings 4-3, then dropping the nightcap 14-12 on Saturday.

Churchill committed a total of 12 errors in the two games.

The Chargers blew a 3-1 fourth inning lead and the issue was settled in their favor in the bottom of the eighth when Dave Schomberger led off with a double to right field, then Mike Devlin was struck by a wild pitch and Jeff Lajoie drew his third base on balls, bringing to the plate Bill Coyle.

Coyle drilled a single to center off of reliever and losing pitcher Duane Pinkett, scoring the winning run.

In the fourth, Churchill took the lead as Mark Chester started the inning with a single to left, however, he was picked off base. Then, after two were out, Lajoie walked and Frayer called in substitute runner Ray Raymon who stole second and proceeded to third on an error. Dave Cooley singled to right and Ron Griffin doubled to left, scoring two more runs.

Frayer started Bill Bardwell on the mound and yanked the junior hurler after he had thrown 59 pitches. The righthanded Bardwell allowed only two hits and "looked extremely good for opener," according to Frayer.

The win went to Schomberger in relieve. He threw the final two innings, gave up one hit, struck out one.

Schomberger was also the pitcher of record in the second game. He lasted 1 two-third innings in relieve and was charged with five runs - all unearned. Junior George Mivd started and went 2 one-third innings and was yanked after giving up eight hits.

Coyle counted three for five, including two triples and a pair of runs batted in while Griffin hammered three triples, batting lefthanded. The switch-hitting senior batted .393 last summer and is considered a key in Frayer's strategy for a Western 6 Conference title.

Wolverine Raceway begins 27th meeting

Harness horses freshly arrived from Blue Bonnets Raceway in Montreal, Pompano Park in Florida, Washington Park in Chicago and Louisville Downs in Kentucky will challenge Detroit-area favorites Monday night as Wolverine Raceway salutes its 27th season with a strong 10 race card.

Post time is 8 p.m. with the nightly double, a third race perfecta and trifectas in the fifth, seventh and last race spicing an appetizing lineup which includes three well-balanced trotting events.

Feature of the opening night race card is a $5,300 conditioned trot which finds Jean Paul Gauthier's

Viking's Firebird, a winner 10 days ago at Blue Bonnets, pitted against such stout opposition as Ted Taylor's O Dot, Bill Gale's Pinehurst, Wally McIlmurray's Rat Fink and Ray Fuller's Spinster Ball.

The seven horse field is carded as the eighth race on the program and is for winners in excess of $10,000.

Upwards of 1,300 pacers and trotters were streaming into the barn area from all parts of the compass through the weekend, with such trainer-drivers as Jim Dennis, Greg Wright, Sonny Graham, Taylor, Archie McNeil, Chris Boring, Ray Remmen, Jim Crane and Bobby Williams.

Romulus softball meet set

The dates for the second annual Romulus Parks and Recreation Slow-Pitch Open Softball Tournament have been announced. And there's a May 7 deadline to enter teams.

The games will be held the week of May 21 with the championship set for May 13.

Teams wishing to enter should get their entry fee ($65) into the parks and recreation department before the deadline date. Checks should be made out to the Romulus Men's Softball Association.

Mail the fee to the recreation offices, 36515 Bibbins, in care of Marie DeBuyscher, director of parks and recreation for the city.

Further information may be obtained by phoning the recreation offices from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., at 941-0666 ext. 67.

On with the Northwest Suburban Conference track wars — Livonia Franklin is ready.

Coach Bob Holmes' Patriots overwhelmed Detroit Catholic Central 110-22 in a nonleague duel last week, serving notice to Westland John Glenn that they are ready for the challenge.

Glenn is the defending champ.

"It was nice to win this one," said Holmes whose team now sports a 1-1 nonleague record. "After that opening day close loss to Churchill, we felt we needed to win. Unfortunately, both of our meets were staged during inclement weather."

Franklin will make its initial bid for the conference title tomorrow 4 p.m. at home to Thurston.

Westland softball deadline set

Tomorrow is the last day managers may enter teams in the Westland Parks and Recreation Slow-Pitch Softball League. League play is set to get underway May 3.

Westland will be represented by three leagues: men's major and minor and women's. The men's major league will play on Monday and Wednesday and entry fee is $210 plus $10 forfeit fees.

The men's minor will play its games on Thursday and Friday and the entry fee is $145 plus $10 for a forfeit or $155. The women's league games are set for Tuesday and Thursday. The girls will play a 12-game schedule and registration is $145.

There is a managerial meeting set for 7:30 p.m., April 21 at the Multipurpose Arena in the Jaycee Park. Any further information may be obtained by calling the parks and recreation department at 722-7620.

Christner sets two records

Despite two record-setting performances by Margaret Christner, Livonia Franklin was left on the shortend of a 59-55 girls' track meet decision against Ladywood.

The loss also spoiled Dick Braun's debut as the Franklin head coach.

"We're building a program here," said Braun, who took the job after coaching several years at Whittier Junior High. "I feel our team has excellent potential. We had several opportunities to win this one."

Miss Christner hurled the shot 36 feet, 9 1/2 inches, then tossed the discus 92 feet, 2 inches. Since discus is a new event, Miss Christner's performance is a record. She also erased the old shot put mark.

Putting experience to work

Former Wayne High and All-Area wrestlers (from left) Rick Hislop, Bob Matheson and Dale Stutesman have put their experience on the mats to good use at Schoolcraft

College where they were standouts in this year's campaign. Stutesman was named the Outstanding Wrestler for the Ocelots who posted a 11-6 season.

If the pieces fall in the right places, Coach Ron Hellier feels he has a title contender in the Northwest Suburban Conference baseball circuit this year.

But the ninth year Livonia Franklin strategist isn't underestimating the power of Garden City East, the defending champ.

'East definitely is the team to beat in our league,' stressed Hellier, 'but we have a senior group of ball players who can hit. Our biggest question mark is the pitching staff.

'If we can get the pitching, and our pitchers have shown in pre-season scrimmages that they can perform, then I feel we are legitimate title contenders,' Hellier added.

To resolve the team's pitching, Hellier must find the answers from a group of four juniors - Al Castrodale, Dennis Smith, Mark Wilkens, Calvin Beer and senior hurler Mike Flood.

Franklin's forte will be its hitting. The team batted .299 last year and scrimmages point out that the Patriots should hit well again this season.

The Patriot mentor has shuffled his defense to shore up the weaknesses caused by graduation. Tim Hollandsworth, who handled the first base chores a year ago, has been moved to third while Bill Longway has been switched from third to second. Steve Tresik has vacated second and has been moved to shortstop and always reliable Jerry Pollard is behind the plate.

Franklin fans won't need a program to know their outfielders. Larry Urben, Nelson Yanick and Darrel Gunter are back and should be improved over a year ago.

Franklin's record dipped to 12-16 last year. Don't look for the Livonians to have a second consecutive losing year this season. They could surprise even the veteran-packed East contingent in what should be a torrid race for the conference crown.

Monroe zips past Wayne

It didn't take long for Ernie Righetti, former Wayne Memorial and Eastern Michigan University track star, to learn first hand about the ups-and-downs of coaching. Righetti, who replaced Bill Hawley as Wayne High's head track coach, has had his problems getting the Zebras into the win column. Wayne was sporting a 1-3 won-loss record going into this week's action.

"We're really a young team," said Righetti after Monroe ruined the day for him by winning the Great Lakes 8 Conference opener 74½-57½. "We lack a blue chip sprinter, but we do have a lot of depth in the distances. "I feel we're going to improve as we mature," Righetti added. Wayne, which has won only one of its four matches, thus far, returns to league competition 4 p.m. tomorrow at home to Taylor Center. The Zebras took on a tough Ypsilanti contingent Tuesday. Wayne mustered five of the 16 first places against Monroe with hurdler Brett Hansen counting two of them. Hansen covered the 120-yard highs in 15.5, then ran a 21.2 for the lows. Rick Blaha started the league season right as he hit the tape in 10:07.3 for the 2-mile run. Teammate Brian Watson was close on his heels, registering a 10:08.0.

Canton could break 'no repeat' jinx

Fred Crissey's ball club at Plymouth Canton was ranked the No. 1 Class A team in the state four of the six weeks the poll was conducted last year.

And Crissey's Chiefs again will be rated among the top squads in the state this season thanks to senior righthander Bill Parson who hurled Canton to the Western Six Conference baseball championship en route to a personal 13-2 won-loss record a year ago.

But, Parson isn't the only reason the Chiefs will be tough again.

Crissey has in his lineup Tom Close who batted .340 last year and was the Les Anders Tournament's Most Valuable Player. Add the names of Dave Pink, Steve Dugan and Steve Hanis and the Chiefs have the nucleus of a championship team.

"We have a murderous schedule this year," said Crissey who opens up the 1976 campaign today against Livonia Stevenson, a highly-touted team. "I'm guardedly optimistic we will do well, but you have to remember that the Western Six Conference is a baseball conference."

Crissey pointed out that since the Michigan High School Athletic Association has been conducting state championship the Western Six has produced a state champ (Livonia Churchill) and also two semi-finalists.

"And no team in the league has ever been able to win the title two years in a row," Crissey added. "All of this tells you what kind of a conference it is."

Crissey has a solid pitching staff to back up Parson including juniors Mark Perkins, John Young, Steve Morman and Dave Ost.

If there are any weaknesses, it's on defense, "up-the-middle," says Crissey.

Softball anyone?

There's still time to enter the Wayne-Westland Women's Open Softball League. The league is looking for at least 10 teams to compete during the 1976 campaign.

There is no residency rule and a 16-game schedule will be organized. Games will be played lae Sundays at the Wayne-Ford Civic Center Lighted Field.

Further information may be obtained by phoning the Wayne or Westland parks and recreation offices to Frank Nance at 721-3073.

SUPPLEMENT TO ASSOCIATED NEWSPAPERS

May, 1976

Don't wait another gallon.

With the price of gas what it is, every gallon counts. So here's something you should be glad to hear. By simply replacing your car's worn spark plugs with a fresh set of Champions, you can help improve your mileage.

In fact, we've done a series of tests all over the country on cars just like yours. The test results show that overwhelmingly, there's a definite improvement in mileage. And there's no quicker, easier or less expensive way to get better

Emission tests can save $20-$25 a year in gas

Motorists could save between $20 and $25 in gasoline costs each year by having their auto emission control equipment regularly inspected and maintained.

Some motorists are already realizing these kinds of savings. Since 1972, New Jersey has operated an inspection and maintenance (I-M) program in connection with an annual safety inspection.

Chicago, Cincinnati and Hamilton County, Ohio; Portland, Oregon, and Riverside and Los Angeles, California are also now conducting some type of I-M program.

These last several programs were ordered by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) as part of larger air clean-up plans for these seriously polluted areas.

I-M can have benefits beyond gasoline savings. It results in more efficient running vehicles. In some areas, it could mean numerous employment opportunities for qualified mechanics. Most importantly, from EPA's point of view, I-M makes city air more breathable.

The areas now affected by I-M (and there are 21 other regions that also ought to have this program in effect) need the additional amount of air clean-up provided simply to protect public health from the grossest hazards: respiratory ailments, the aggravation of heart disease, and increased death rates.

Studies have shown that all other controls in these areas — industrial, municipal and new cars replacing old cars — are by themselves not enough to achieve health protecting levels.

I-M does provide cleaner air. New Jersey estimates that its carbon monoxide pollution has declined 13 percent since its program began. Other auto related pollutants in the state are also decreasing.

For the other areas affected by I-M, this kind of improvement cannot be as easily cited since their programs have not been in effect as long as New Jersey's.

The annual cost to the motorist of an I-M program now varies between $1 and $5 per year either in additional registration fees or payments at the inspection site. At this time, four out of five cars have been passing the New Jersey test, and repair costs for those that haven't have averaged between $30 and $35.

A large amount of leeway is provided states and localities by EPA in setting up I-M programs tailored to their particular needs and resources.

For example, I-M may be run separately or along with a safety inspection; state-owned, contractor operated, or commercial inspection sites may be used; maintenance of emission controls may be initially introduced as a voluntary measure; pass-fail standards may vary somewhat, and two basic testing methods may be employed.

EPA does insist that I-M be done at least annually and that, regardless of specific program, the overall objective must be accomplished of most vehicles meeting the emission standards for their particular model year.

The quality of mechanical work done in

I-M is obviously critical to consumer acceptance of the program. In this regard, EPA and the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare have available $100,000 in matching grants for five states (New York, Pennsylvania, California, Oregon and Arizona) to train instructors who will then train mechanics in the proper maintenance and repair of emission control hardware.

With Federal and Local cooperation, the future should see more motorists obtaining a regular I-M checkup. It will benefit their car, in most cases their pocketbook, and above all their health.

Steering not hard to maintain

A power steering system is considerably more complex than a non-power system. But most power steering maintenance can be accomplished by the motorist or his service mechanic, and special tools usually are not required.

The heart of a power steering system is a hydraulic pump that supplies the pressure to the wheels when you turn the steering wheel. Power steering pumps rarely break down as long as you make sure they have the proper amount of power steering fluid to do the job. Periodic checking of the fluid level is usually all that is necessary for regular maintenance.

Another item to check periodically is the belt that connects the pump to the engine. If this belt should break, your entire power steering system will cease to function immediately.

When checking the fluid level and the drive belts, check the hoses that connect the pump to the other components in the system. Hoses should be firm and free of cracks. Connections should be tight and leak-free. Leakage from hoses and connections in the system is the major cause of fluid loss, the main cause of power steering failure.

How can you tell if your power steering system needs attention? Usually the first sign is either an unusual noise (squealing, chattering or knocking sound) or a change in the "feel" of your steering (sluggishness, jerkiness or a tendency to pull to one side).

Car's condition, careful driving yield big savings

Little things, particularly in terms of car maintenance, can mean a lot in terms of fuel savings. To prove the validity of the above statement, Shell Oil Company embarked on tests of procedures that could save the average car owner nearly three months worth of gasoline annually.

How much proper car care and prudent driving habits can save in fuel was the answer Shell sought in its tests. Here's what Shell engineers did and what they found:

A typical company car was taken and put into shape where gasoline waste was probable. The engine was placed slightly out of tune with ignition timing retarded and carburetor idle set too fast and rich.

Radial tires on the car were replaced by ordinary tires and air pressure was lowered from the proper 24 pounds to 19. Wheel alignment was altered and the wrong weight of motor oil was installed.

A group of 23 drivers was employed to drive the cars so altered and the group averaged 13.6 miles per gallon. Once the cars were put back into proper shape, the test was conducted again. This time, mileage averaged 15.6 m.p.g.

Shell reports that the combination of good car condition and careful driving made the average m.p.g. 16.8. That was a 23.5 percent improvement or a savings of nearly three months worth of gasoline.

Thirteen points to help you cut pollution, save on fuel

If operating your car for low pollution doesn't turn you on, then consider this. The same driving procedures that contribute to clean air also help save fuel. The California Air Resources Board has compiled the following list of "do's and don'ts".

Keep car in good running order. Dirty carburetors, clogged air filters and worn out points and plugs not only waste gas and reduce engine performance, they also contribute to air pollution.

Have smog systems serviced regularly. Smog devices reduce emissions only if they remain in working order.

Don't drive a "smoker." The real danger to our air is not the visible smoke, but the invisible fumes. However, smoke means engine trouble, and engine trouble means pollution.

Never be a "gas-pumper." Many drivers produce needless pollution by pumping the gas throttle, sometimes several times, before starting. Hydrocarbons are spewed all over the neighborhood.

To be a "clean" driver, depress the throttle only once. This sets the choke. Let your throttle come up halfway or all the way, following instructions of your vehicle owner's manual. Now turn the key. A well-tuned engine will start instantly.

Skip the warmup. Thanks to improved oils, no long warmup is needed with today's cars. Driveway warmups of longer than 20 seconds are unnecessary.

Use an easy takeoff. Cold engines are high polluters, especially when pushed fast. When your engine is cold, use a light touch on the gas pedal for a couple of miles. Otherwise, you may leave a long trail of fumes behind you before your engine warms up.

Don't "blast off." Kicking the throttle all the way down makes the tailpipe spit fumes.

Keep level speed. The less you change speed, the less you'll foul up the air. Your car produces far more smog when it's accelerating or decelerating than when it's driven steadily. It also uses more fuel.

Swear off sudden slowdowns. When, at high speeds, you take your foot off the gas suddenly, emissions zoom. A gradual stop causes a little extra pollution, but nothing like the pollution your car spits out when stopped suddenly. Anticipation and preparation are the mark of a good driver.

Avoid idling. When you wait for a freight train to pass or stop at the curb to chat with your engine idling, you add a heavy load of pollutants, especially carbon monoxide, to the air. Turn off your engine while waiting, whenever practical.

Avoid stop signs and traffic lights whenever you can. Seek routes that help you keep your car moving steadily. When you travel routes with many traffic lights, try to pace your driving to "hit the green." A steady flow of traffic cuts pollution.

Do cry over spilled gasoline. Remind your service station attendant not to overfill or "top out" your tank.

Pass this test and--save cash

Here's a quiz where there could be a cash payoff if you know the right answers. Sorry, no one is offering prizes for the top scores. But by knowing and following some of the maintenance and driving practices contained below, you could reap sizeable savings in gasoline bills.

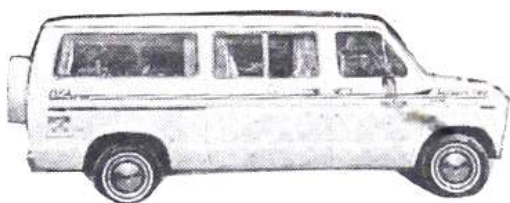

1. Worn spark plugs waste an average of how much gasoline, compared to newly installed plugs?
 - A. Over six percent
 - B. Nearly two percent
 - C. There's little difference
2. An engine in need of tune-up wastes this much more fuel than a newly tuned engine, on average
 - A. Less than a gallon per tankful
 - B. Between one and two gallons per tankful
 - C. Between five and six gallons per tankful
3. For best fuel mileage be sure your tires aren't
 - A. Overinflated
 - B. Underinflated
 - C. White sidewalls
4. The following is a notorious fuel waster
 - A. Worn windshield wipers
 - B. Frayed battery cables
 - C. Clogged air cleaner
5. Brakes can have an adverse effect on fuel economy if
 - A. They are disc brakes
 - B. They are not properly adjusted
 - C. They are drum and shoe types
6. You should use premium fuels

- only if
- A. Your car is over three years old
 - B. You have an eight-cylinder engine
 - C. Engine does not perform properly without it
7. Unleaded fuel is necessary if
 - A. Your car is equipped with a catalytic converter
 - B. You use a four-barrel carburetor
 - C. Your engine has a tendency to overheat
 8. The following is wasteful of fuel
 - A. Driving too slowly
 - B. Driving too fast
 - C. Driving with the windows closed
 9. According to AAA, "jackrabbit starts" can waste
 - A. 10 percent of your fuel
 - B. 25 percent of your fuel
 - C. Up to 44 percent of your fuel
 10. To save fuel, when you are waiting at a railroad crossing for several minutes
 - A. Keep transmission in neutral
 - B. Put engine in reverse but foot on brake
 - C. Shut off engine

Products available to ease job of keeping car clean

If the grease and grime created by the do-it-yourselfers at your house has you working overtime in the laundry room, the following information may help.

Go to your local automotive supply store or the parts jobber frequented by automobile mechanics, and buy some mechanic's hand cleaner.

Not the old fashioned abrasive stuff of years gone by, the kind that took the skin away with the dirt ... but the new kind of creamy product that won't hurt sensitive skin and really does an excellent cleaning job. Most can be used with or without water.

They are treated with lanolin (or similar products), and even have an antiseptic agent built into the formula to help heal the minor nicks and scratches that are part and parcel of most Saturday afternoon projects.

Most manufacturers supply dispensers to hold the hand cleaner container so that you can dispense the cleaner efficiently and economically. Their low cost permits installation of one in the garage and one in the basement workshop for real convenience.

You will also find the auto store a revelation in terms of household helps that you don't see advertised on TV.

There are bags of easy-to-use floor cleaner that eat up garage floor grease fast and save you the job of cleaning it up.

Have your Auto Insurance rates been increased

If so, it's more important than ever that you check with your Farmers Insurance Group Agent to see how Farmers saves money for preferred risks.

Thorough tune-up is needed when aim is best performance

Better gasoline mileage, more pep, surer starting are all benefits to be derived from an engine tuneup. But to get the maximum the service offers, Champion Spark Plug Company suggests the motorist should become acquainted with what a good tune-up is and insist on receiving all ingredients.

Before having a tune-up performed, make sure that the engine is in condition to benefit. The engine should be in generally good mechanical condition, critical parts lubricated, the cooling system and exhaust functioning. An engine with burned valves, worn or damaged piston rings cannot be tuned properly until worn or damaged parts are repaired.

So it is important that cylinder balance and compression checks be performed to help detect any serious malfunctions.

Basics of any tune-up include changing of spark plugs and points and condenser in cars so equipped. Some cars have electronic ignition without points and condenser. Checking all ignition components is recommended and if replacement of items that come in sets (such as plugs and plug wires) becomes necessary, then change the whole set.

Installing one or two plugs or wires is false economy since if several units need replacing then their mates will probably wear out soon.

The carburetor, which delivers the proper mixture of air and fuel to the intake manifold, should be checked for leaks in the gasket area. Excessive dirt and varnish, improper choke and faulty linkage also are possible carburetor defects.

Related areas such as fuel pump, air filter, fuel line and fuel filter should be checked as part of the tune-up procedure.

Various emission control devices have been introduced into cars in the past few years. Each of these devices must be checked to make sure it is properly functioning for best performance, dependability, economy and reduced exhaust emissions.

So, when you see an ad for a tune-up at an unbelievably low price, check what you are getting for that price.

Does it include parts or merely labor? Is the shop equipped with devices like engine oscilloscopes, exhaust gas analyzers and other sophisticated equipment?

A good tune-up that will save you money and help your car to top performance won't come cheaply. But a cheap tune-up is no bargain.

Follow directions if servicing converter

Sometimes it isn't "business as usual" when servicing a new model car equipped with a catalytic converter. Take the matter of using a carburetor cleaner or other fuel additive.

Unless these substances are used in a certain prescribed way, they could cause damage to the converter, rendering it useless. Read and follow the directions exactly.

Make sure windshield wipers are in shape

As with so many other vital components on your car, your windshield wipers are most likely to fail just when you need them the most—like during the next storm.

In the summer, heat, smog, and even your service station attendant's windshield washer spray are working together to reduce the efficiency of your wiper system. It's no wonder, after sitting quietly on your windshield and deteriorating day-in and day-out, that they often fail to do their job.

The best time to check your windshield wiper system is during a rainstorm. Or you can check it the next time you go through a car wash. You can also perform a good check while someone sprays your windshield with a garden hose.

However you choose to check your wipers, you should check them on both the fast and slow speeds.

If any trouble symptoms are present, you should replace as much of your wiper system as is necessary to eliminate the problem. In many cases, all that is needed are new squeegees (the rubber parts that contact the windshield).

When you do replace all or part of your wiper blades, make sure you replace both sides at the same time. If one wiper is shot, it's a good bet the other one is about to go, too. Safe vision during hazardous road conditions is too important to risk for a few dollars.

Here are five visible or audible indicators that will signal the need for attention to your windshield wipers. Clear driving vision is especially important during the bad weather season. Check for the following signs of malfunctioning:

1. Streaking — arcs of unwiped moisture within the wiping area.

2. Hazing — a thin, hard-to-see-through film covering most or all of the wiping area even after the blade has just been wiped.

3. Chattering — a "stuttering" motion of the blade accompanied by a "chattering" noise as the blade sweeps across the windshield, with some areas left unwiped.

4. Scalloping — a ragged outer edge in the wiping pattern.

5. Rattling — no visible signs of problems, but the wiper blade sounds as if it were very loose. Can be reduced or eliminated by switching to polycarbonate blades.

Shock absorbers should be checked

Unlike a tire that suddenly blows out with a loud bang, worn shock absorbers can fail with little advance warning. Yet when shocks fail, the results can be just as perilous as a blow-out.

To avoid such a danger,

ask your service man to check shocks every time the car is on the hoist for a lube job or similar service.

This is particularly important if your present shocks have more than 20,000 miles of wear on them.

From German expert

FOR THE CAR

1. Low rolling resistance. This means maintenance of the prescribed tire pressure, brakes and do not bind or grind and well adjusted, free-moving wheel bearings.

2. Correct adjustment of carburetor and ignition. Clean air filter elements and maintenance of a sufficiently high engine temperature (low temperatures increase fuel consumption).

FOR THE DRIVER

1. Gentle driving, especially when starting from rest and early shifting into the next-higher gear. If transmission is automatic, make it shift upwards at low speeds and use the kickdown sparingly. Brake gently. Remember: high engine revs need more fuel and a lot of energy will be wasted by high braking.

2. Select your speed according to the developing traffic situation. If lights are red, don't rush up and brake, but let the car roll gently, so when the lights change, you can accelerate without changing gear.

3. Every car has a "most economical" speed range. Usually around 50 mph. Keep it to that speed wherever possible. Never "pump" on the accelerator. This squirts raw fuel into the engine — at your cost. Driving at changing speeds is uneconomical — driving at a steady speed saves fuel.

That's oil, folks

Oil cans may not be the most stimulating form of literature, but a few seconds spent scanning the can tops may prove worthwhile to the maintenance-conscious motorist. This is particularly true with the new motor oil coding system that recently went into effect.

Under the new code, several parts of the coding system remain constant. The SAE stands for Society of Automotive Engineers and the numerals 10, 20, 30 and 40 still indicate the viscosity

A designation such as 10W30 indicates a multipurpose oil covering a wide viscosity range. The W means the oil is specially suited to wintertime use.

In addition to the SAE viscosity rating, there is an API or American Petroleum Institute classification of ML (Motor Light), MM (Motor Medium) or MS (Motor Severe). All 1964 or later models require the MS class of oil.

While cans bearing the above API designations are still in circulation, they eventually will be supplanted with ones marked SA, SB, SC, SD, SE or CC.

SA through SC are for light duty use such as lawn mower engines.

SD oil is the generally accepted lubricant for most present-day cars. CC will be for diesel engines.

The SE oils will be used for future engines with greater heat-resistant requirements.

IS THE BIGGEST, MOST POWERFUL PACK OF SMALL PICKUPS IN THE BUSINESS.

If you've got a big load on your mind, get a load of what Toyota's got for you. More small trucks to choose from, with more power and more standard equipment than anybody in the business.

Take our 1/2-Ton. It's our lowest-priced. Yet you still get a big 2.2 liter engine, 4-speed synchromesh, power disc front brakes with 9-in. booster, radiator with reserve tank and cargo tie-down hooks. Not to mention things like whitewalls, mud guards and power-boosted flow thru ventilation. All standard. For bigger loads, our Long Bed gives you almost a foot and a half longer cargo space, a longer wheelbase and bigger gas tank. And if you're a sportsman, we've got two sporting propositions: our SR-5 Sport Trucks. Choose either 1/2-ton or long bed and you get gas-saving engine-saving 5-speed overdrive transmission, AM radio, wide radials, high back bucket seats, racing stripes and a lot of other extras. All standard equipment, no extra charge. More. It's getting an outfit that fits your needs, outfitted the way you want for less. And more is: 22 Toyotas to choose from • 4 small wagons to choose from • 19 Toyotas that get 34* mpg or better on the highway • 6 Toyotas that get for less than $3600* • 39 features standard equipment on our SR-5. Toyota dealers give you more because Toyota is more. That's why Toyota outsold all other imported cars in America in 1975.

TIPS on meat and poultry care

Federal and State inspection of meat and poultry packing is only part of the job of making sure that products stay clean and wholesome. When you buy the product, the rest is up to you—

*Buy meat and poultry products last and take them right home, so frozen foods won't thaw out or fresh foods spoil.

*Wash your hands often while preparing food. Clean the kitchen and kitchen utensils often with soap and hot water. This is especially important right after handling raw meat and poultry, and before handling cooked foods.

*Use refrigerated steaks, roasts, chops, and luncheon meats within 3 to 5 days. Use ground and stew meats, variety meats, sausage, cooked meats, and poultry within 1 to 2 days. Otherwise, freeze.

*Thaw frozen foods in the refrigerator instead of at room temperature.

*Be sure meat or poultry is cooked all the way through before serving.

EASTER EGGS-ONE MORE TIME

Are your Easter Bunnies tired of left over hard-boiled eggs after Easter? Here are some ideas to clip and save for those left over hard-boiled Easter eggs.

Egg-Filled Ham Horns

8 slices very thin ham 1/2 cup sour cream
1 teaspoon finely
4 hard cooked eggs, chopped parsley grated
horseradish

Lay the ham slices out on a work board. Mix all other ingredients together and divide into mounds on the ham slices. Spread the mixture out to the edges. Gently roll the ham slices into miniature horns, similar to cornucopia, and secure the small end with a toothpick. Arrange in a circle with olives in the center. Serves 8.

Egg-Walnut Wonder

1 small head lettuce 1/2 cup chopped celery
4 hard cooked eggs 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
1/2 cup chopped 3/4 cup favorite French walnuts dressing

Arrange lettuce leaves on individual salad plates. Chop the hard cooked eggs. Add walnuts, celery and garlic salt. Mix well. Spoon mounds onto lettuce leaves and ladle French dressing over the top. Serves 4.

Fancy Egg and Shrimp Casserole

1 can cream of shrimp soup 1 can cooked small shrimp, cut in 1 cup milk half
1/4 cup grated cheese 6 hard cooked eggs, grated
3/4 Whole Egg
Mayonnaise Small can water chestnuts
1/4 cup white wine
1 can French-fried onion rings

Mix soup, milk, cheese, Mayonnaise and wine together and add the vermicelli broken into small pieces. Add shrimp, eggs and water chestnuts. Bake in a covered casserole at 325° for 20 minutes. Uncover, add onion rings and bake for another 15 minutes. Serve hot. Serves 6-8.
